

Over Score Districts Will Be Exempt Under May 25 Call For Men

Between twenty and twenty-five local draft districts may be exempted from furnishing men under the last draft call for about 20,000 men from Pennsylvania to go to four cantonments, in the opinion of officers at the state draft headquarters. Definite statements of the districts could not be made because the credits for enlistment of men in National Guard and Regular Army organizations since last June and the quotas under the call are being checked up. It is expected to announce the quotas within the next twenty-four hours. District officers are preparing data for the train schedules to move the men.

American Force Growing Stronger Each Day at Front

Every day the Americans become stronger. Apparently they are better entrenched than the Germans, who are being continually harassed, day and night. Despite the enemy's heavy expenditure in gas he has obtained no advantage in this sector, the Americans discounting his every move.

comment. It is believed that Mayor Keister and all associated with him in the general conduct of the city are aware of what is going on and while it requires some courage to regulate the misuse of paved highways it is pointed out as the duty of the authorities to protect the interests of the community against the invasion of community rights by corporations and individuals. There has been some talk of a public meeting of protest and some such movement will undoubtedly follow a continuation of the abuse which is recognized all over the city.

Perhaps the provision of the recommendations likely to encounter most strenuous objection is the one that all wage increases allowed by the roads in 1916 and 1917 shall be deducted from the amounts now to be given. The commission declared that its conclusions were based on a principle, which was that the men were entitled to recompense for the increased cost of living and in basing its recommendations on the payrolls of December, 1915, in comparison with present prices of necessities decided that it would be unfair to allow certain employees who already had received wage advance to benefit twice.

Remedy Badly Needed

"It is up to those who know the situation to provide the remedy" to the exasperated comment of one who has been watching the deterioration of the highways. "Commissioner Lynch is a practical highway director and people will look to him to preserve the streets and suggest such regulations for their use as is necessary to protect them against further abuse. He knows the cost and realizes better than any other citizen what will follow unless a stop is immediately put to the misuse of the highways."

have been installed months ago when the street was previously opened. It is said that the failure to do so was owing to the refusal of a property owner to install the necessary connections at that time. As a result of this indifference on the part of the property owners builders, contractors and others the streets are constantly being torn up without reason or excuse and at great cost to the common purse.

There is said to be grave doubt now whether the charges for repairing streets opened in this way equal the cost of the repairs. It has been suggested that a good way to prevent this sort of thing would be to greatly increase the fee for permits of this character.

Furthermore the principal driveway of the city along the river has become in recent months a mere traffic thoroughfare for trucks and automobiles of every sort which reach that highway from every intersecting street and for no other purpose apparently than to drive along the river. Other cities have regulations for such traffic and have preserved for the people at least one main boulevard. Harrisburg will be compelled to do the same thing or progress will be retarded.

No One Cares

An illustration of the absolute indifference of individuals and corporations to the unnecessary cutting open of paved highways is to be seen on North Second street, between Liberty and North. During the past year or two this particular block has been ripped open for one reason or another repeatedly. Only last week an opening made last winter for the introduction of some service pipes was closed by the Department of Highways. This week practically at the same spot the street was again ripped open for the introduction of another service pipe which might Executing warrants 1.00 Mileage 20.00 Serving subpoena 20.00 Additional 20.00 Secretary Backenstoss explained that the "dock entry" means keeping a record of each case for which an information is made out. The Mayor is required by law to do this when he holds police court, and the alderman is required to keep the record when he holds the hearings in place of the Mayor, according to Secretary Backenstoss. At the present time, the Mayor's secretary, who is paid by the city, makes the dock entry, but the alderman gets the fifty-cent fee for doing it.

Another item on the alderman's costs was "subpena," 50 cents. This was said by the alderman to be the fee for subpoenaing the witness to the hearing. The only witness to the hearing was Patrolman Newmyer, who made the arrest. The officer sending a motor ordinance violator into police court always appears against the man, and subpoenas are not served. In case the Mayor were holding police court, the alderman's fee would go into the city treasury. And in case the Mayor were holding police court, information would not be made out in so many cases. Motorists arrested for violations of city ordinances then would have their fines to pay no more.

Gives Finger to Go to War; Accepted After Removal

New York, May 9.—Lamel Camel, 24, who was born in Egypt, gave his little finger yesterday to fight for the United States. He applied at the recruiting office at 34 East Twenty-third street for enlistment. The examining doctor found an injury on his little finger of the left hand. "I am sorry I can't pass you," said the doctor. "Suppose I have it cut off," suggested the recruit. "Fine stuff," the physician replied. "Go over to Bellevue and see what they can do for you."

The boy went to the hospital, where the doctors injected cocaine around the joint and took off the finger. Then Camel went back to the recruiting office and the doctor passed him.
