

VANDALS TURN GREAT GUNS ON ANOTHER CITY

Incendiary Shells, at Order of Crown Prince, Ruin Amiens

On the French Front in France, Wednesday, May 9.—The German artillery, under orders from the Prussian and Bavarian Crown Princes, is doing its utmost to turn Amiens into another Rheims. Picardy's capital has already suffered terribly from this effort to carry out the German idea of striking terror into the Fatherland's enemies by the destruction of their most loved works of art, and every day adds to its sufferings.

21 NAME ON LIST OF U. S. CASUALTIES

Nine Deaths; Four Killed in Action; Report Sea Victim

Washington, May 10.—The casualty list to-morrow contained twenty-one names divided as follows: Killed in action, four; died of wounds, one; died of accident, one; died of disease, three; wounded severely, three; wounded slightly, seven; missing in action, one; lost at sea, one.

This follows from the fact that no troops whatever are in the city and that the railroad passing through it is not in use. The cannonade generally ceases at nightfall, only to be replaced by air raids, which occur almost every night.

When the firemen, who gallantly stuck to their posts, have attempted to extinguish the flames, the German gunners, seeing the glare of the fire that is carried out with the incendiary type, they have caused enormous damage, so that up to the present 1,200 houses have been destroyed.

The task of the authorities in getting the people away when they discovered the intentions of the Germans to destroy the city was a tremendous one, as the refugees from the devastated districts had increased the population to 120,000, all of whom had to be removed from danger within a few days.

SPROUL VISITS MILL DISTRICTS

Goes Through Industrial Sections of Allegheny County; Beidleman After Scott

Senator William C. Sproul, who toured Cambria county yesterday and received a greeting as enthusiastic as he did in Blair the day before, is in Pittsburgh for the weekend and touring the mill districts.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh says: "Senator William C. Sproul, Republican candidate for Governor, campaigning Thursday in Cambria county and coming into Pittsburgh Thursday night, declared he is meeting with the heartiest reception."

The list follows: Killed in action: Sergeant Dugles Day, Line Fork, Ky.; Corporal Alexander Drelich, Passaic, N. J.; Private Karol Duraska, Washington, Pa.; Private Lester R. Ludinghouse, Oakland, Cal.

Died of wounds: Cook Frank W. Dzinski, 70 Bannan street, Torrington, Conn.

Died of disease: Corporal Luther McMakin, Greer, S. C.; Privates John Peete, Holly Grove, La.; George P. Shepherson, Parkside Apartment, Philadelphia.

Died of accident: Private Westley Clyde Wagoner, Waterloo, Ia. Wounded slightly: Lieutenant James H. Fiscus, Greensburg, Pa.

fectly and all the people are now safely housed elsewhere. All traffic is forbidden to enter the city, so that the enemy may not be given ground for declaring the bombardment one of military exigencies.

COMMONS VOTES CONFIDENCE IN LLOYD GEORGE

Premier Refutes the Charges Made by Maurice in Conduct of War

London, May 10.—The Lloyd George ministry won a notable victory in the House of Commons yesterday. By a vote of 293 to 106 the House voted down a motion introduced by former Premier Asquith providing for the appointment of a special committee to investigate charges made by Major General Frederick B. Maurice, recently relieved of his post of chief director of military operations at the war office.

Stirred by the imminence of a cabinet crisis, the people of London crowded the public galleries long before the debate opened. The diplomatic and peers' galleries also were thronged.

Immediately after the introduction of Mr. Asquith's motion the premier took the floor and spoke in defense of the government. He refuted the charges of General Maurice, and declared statements made in his recent speech, to which Maurice's charges referred, were made on information received from General Maurice's department of the war office.

"Beidleman and Woodward campaigned in Braddock and vicinity, in low of Register of Wills William Connor, and talked to two crowds packing the meeting halls. Senator Beidleman, reiterating his challenge to John R. K. Scott, to tell his audiences how he proposes to have the next Legislature convene in Harrisburg, a State Senate which would be organized and doing business fifteen days before the Lieutenant Governor is sworn in, did so purposely because Scott is in town. He forced Scott to drop this feature of his nightly talk, but got no answer to his challenge.

"Senator Sproul will be nominated for Governor by over 200,000 majority" was a prediction made yesterday by Congressman Charles W. Rowland, of Philadelphia, Center county, in Philadelphia. "I make this statement advisedly," continued the congressman. The people of Pennsylvania are alive to the situation. They know of the high character and the exceptional qualifications of Senator Sproul and are also aware of the delinquencies of his opponent. There is a spirit of patriotism manifested in every section and the people are thinking for themselves and will vote accordingly at the coming primary. Sproul is getting stronger every day as he is becoming better known to the voters. This is particularly true of western counties from which I have direct and reliable information."

"We propose here in Luzerne county to threaten, at the outset, any attempt by the factional Philadelphia boss to gain a foothold in our section," said A. H. Bleckley, last night in Wilkes-Barre at a meeting of business men who had gathered to form a Luzerne county branch of the Pennsylvania Patriotic Union. The officers elected were: Chairman, A. H. Bleckley, president Dorancon Silk Works; secretary, H. C. Shann, manager of Lazarus Brothers; treasurer, Ambrose West, proprietor West Knitting Mills.

Nation Is Relieved by Success of Lloyd George; Common Cause Survives

New York, May 10.—There is not the least doubt that a feeling of disquiet was excited in the United States by the news that General Maurice's charges might precipitate a change of government in England, and that there is a strong feeling of relief over the fact that the change has been averted by the thorough satisfactory vote of nearly three to one.

The battle is still going on, the battle that we began by calling the battle of Picardy, and changed to "the battle of Flanders and Picardy," and which we may have to call "the battle of Europe" or "the battle of 1918" before we get through, if we are to find any title that is adequate to its size. It is the battle of Magna Charta and the Declaration of Independence and the Rights of Man against the Dark Ages, fought out now in one gigantic struggle; it is four years of agony brought to a climax. At this moment, when there is need for the tenser concentration against the foe, it was deeply disturbing to have thrust before us the prospect that England might be guilty of the levity of changing commanders for mere reasons. It is not so, and the common cause has escaped a peril.

Man Captured by Chinese Bandits Was Married by a Harrisburg Priest

E. J. Purcell, who, with other engineers, was captured and robbed by Chinese bandits, was married by the Rev. Joseph R. Murphy, rector of St. Francis' Roman Catholic Church, in was learned to-day. The marriage took place a number of years ago in Bloomsburg.

Purcell was mentioned in Associated Press dispatches to the Telegraph as having arrived at a Pacific port after being captured by Chinese bandits, robbed of seven large boxes containing $125,000 in American money and exhibited in a cage to natives of China. His wife and three children, who accompanied him to America, were in Peking at the time of his capture. He eventually bribed his guards and managed to escape. He was an American railway engineer in China.
