SCOUTS TO JOIN IN BIG PARADE

Executive Calls on Lads to Join in Patriotic Event

Scout Executive Virgin has issued a general order calling scouts to parade Monday, May 13, in connection with the War Savings Stamp Pledge Week. The order follows: "General Orders for W. S. S. Pledge Week: "Parade Orders, Monday, May 13. "All Scouts will assemble at their own headquarters in time to report to Scout headquarters at 1 o'clock sharp. Troops will line up in Square in solid formation in order to have a large group picture taken. "Every Scout should endeavor to be in uniform. "Scouts will fall into parade line—right resting in front street at south. Parade moves at 1.30 sharp. Carry all colors and flags. "Scouts will march with their troops, not with their schools. "By order, "SCOUT EXECUTIVE."

Boys Prove Expertness In Following Signs Left In Woods by Scouts

Troop 13 took a hike through Wildwood and up through Paxton creek. The first group started in the morning and marked their trail with well-known scout signs. The remainder of the troop started after dinner and following the trail found Group 1 at the head of the lake. This was a good lesson in tracking and a prize was given to Scout Snyder for the greatest number of points in observation. One of the chief things observed by the troop was a great variety of wild flowers and of course there was some excitement. Patrol Leader Dreese has an everlasting thirst for water. He tried to get a drink from the stream, but he didn't take into consideration that he would pass a corner of a barn. Now Dreese has a dog and evidently the farmer's dogs knew it from the way they went after his heels. After much jumping on Dreese's part and scolding on the part of the farmer's wife, the dogs returned to the barn. Dreese says he likes dogs but he thinks they ought to be educated. Snyder has a reputation in the troop as a lover of nature and his special plant is ivy, and as a lover of yore he is wearing a silk handkerchief in place of a collar. Troop 13 is on its way to Camp Boyd.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE ENVIABLE RECORD

Boys Sold Hundreds of Liberty Bonds in Great Campaign

All the reports of the Liberty Bond sales are not in yet, but following are the winners of medals or bars for selling ten or more bonds: Troop 1—Donald K. Royal, 16 bonds. Troop 7—William Quaid, 11 bonds. Troop 11—Lawrence Rebeck, 23 bonds; Thomas Wickersham, 12; Clarence Looker, 10; William Murray, 14; Edward Seigman, 10. Troop 13—Karl Moeslein, 15; William Fenstemacher, 11; Lorne Bayless, 11; William McLaughlin, 13; Edgar Nies, 10. Troop 14—Joel Earnest, 20 bonds. Troop 18—Meyer Gross, 10 bonds. Troop 19—Francis Paul, 10 bonds. Troop 20—Ross H. Swope, S. M., 11 bonds. Troop 1, of Lykens—Anton Randall, 2 bonds; Harold Keen, 13. Troop 2, of Middletown—Harry Roth, 13 bonds; Ralph Hoover, 10. The record troop of Harrisburg is No. 11, Edward Manser, scoutmaster. His troop sold eighty bonds to eighty different individuals for a total of $9,200. The champion Harrisburg scout bond salesman is also of this troop—Lawrence Rebeck, who sold twenty-three bonds to as many individuals for a total of $5,100. But we must take off our hats to Anton Ray, of Troop 1, Lykens. He sold twenty-eight bonds to twenty-one subscribers for a total of $1,805. That shows work—good hard work.

Enjoy Marshmallow Toast After Hike With Girls

On Thursday, May 2, the members of Troop 8 were on a hike with the Girl Scouts of the church. At the end of the hike a marshmallow toast was enjoyed by the hikers. Some of the more bashful fellows felt rather lonely. The affair was a novel experience of the two groups and it is hoped that more hikes can be arranged. Seven good applicants for membership were held off until permission could be secured to increase the troop enrollment to more than thirty members. Monday's meeting was featured by talks on fire building and the use of the ax. Fire also came in for its turn. Burns, scalds, fainting and a drowning and their treatment were discussed. The newly-formed patrol adopted the name of the Fox Patrol. The troop is their place in the sale of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps. The baseball team is rounding into shape and is after the championship. Address of communication to Samuel McLean, care of Boy Scout Headquarters. A night hike is planned for Thursday, May 9. The hike will be made for an overnight hike to be held in the near future. The troop will hold a musicale on Thursday, May 9. An interesting program has been arranged by the entertainment committee. All members of the troop are urged to take part in the exciting program in the parade on Monday. Be at the scout room as early as possible. R. FOSTER SHADER, Scribe.

TRICKS BY DOGS FEATURE OF BILL

Two Novelty Acts on Majestic Program for the Weekend

Tricks by dogs furnish one of the features for the Majestic program for the weekend, the novelty offering being the act, claimed by his master to be a mind-reading dog, proved to the audience last night. Seven dogs are under command and remember more than one command at a time. Three other dogs also help along with the entertainment, and Hector coaches the act with a surprising "mental telepathy" number feat. Reel number 22. Today the young woman presenting a baffling weight act. It is said her normal weight is ninety-eight pounds, but that she can increase it at will until she cannot be lifted from the floor. Several acts are included to convince the audience that there is no trickery in the feat. Fox and Mayo. Comedy song artists, are these boys who get the most applause on their "Chin-Chin-Chinamen" parody and "Just Break the News to Mother." "Speaking to Father."—This comedy play is full of fun and enjoyment. Milton Pollock, Anita Allen, Fred Bradbury and Ed. S. Thompson form the company. The comedy is a part of a professor. If the sketch were lengthened a few minutes, giving the man on the stage, who is surely would be plenty of laughter in this offering. "Georgie asks the audience to imagine they are on a throne and that he is court jester. It is a fine idea for a comedy. He is carried out for a fifteen-minute comedy feature it should be a big success. Jessel, however, changes to songs and monolog, following the style of many other stage comedians. MAX ROBERTSON.

Orchestra of Troop Seven Gets New Instruments

A very interesting meeting of Troop 7 was held last Friday night at which time the members of the troop became acquainted with the new scout executive, J. F. Virgin. We as a troop feel that scouting in our city will take on new life and that it will mean more to be a true scout. The manner of obeying the scout laws and doing the things connected with the scout work will be of a different nature. More stress will be put on tests and the high class in which they will be passed. More respect to the wearing of the uniforms must be shown. The real question—to be a scout or not—must be answered in real earnestness by the boy himself. Several new instruments have been added to the troop orchestra, and the rehearsal on Friday night was of real credit to its members. A revision of patrols and patrol leaders will be discussed on Friday night. A first-aid patrol will be added to the troop and each of your tests so as to be a patrol leader or a member of the first-aid patrol. William Quaid is on the honor roll and will receive a token of recognition. A hike is scheduled for Saturday. There is a lot to see on a hike at this time of the year, and an excellent time to pass your tests. GEORGE REINOEHL.

Baseball Squad of Troop 6 Coming Out in Force

The baseball squad of Troop 6 is on the job. Twenty-three candidates are on the list to be picked. Two teams will be picked, and are open to challenges from any scout troop either for our first or second team. Address all communications to Manager Harry Carson, 344 Hummel street. Scouts, don't forget your old newspapers and magazines to be brought to the scout rooms tomorrow afternoon for sale. A special meeting will be held to-night to get ready for the parade on Monday. In the new course of scout instruction the program will be as follows: Knot tying, semaphore signaling, first aid, fire making with bow and drill. Other subjects will be added to the course as members are qualified to go ahead. As a Scout passes one course with more than eight per cent he will be advanced to the next class. Right through, Scouts! Make us add to the program soon.

Troop 5 Plans For Big Booster Week

The scouts of Troop 5 have inaugurated a Booster Week to get new members for the troops. It has been pretty hard sledding so far, but we are still plugging. Drums are pushed forward steadily each week so as to have the members ready for the summer camp which they are planning.

Three New Members Admitted to Troop 20

The regular business meeting of Troop 20 was held last Friday evening. Three new applicants were admitted to membership—Alfred Doyle, Jacob Harder and Howard Shanfer. This brings the troop membership to thirty. This evening's meeting will be made for an all-day hike to be held soon also for the celebration of the troop's birthday, which comes on June 4. Scouts have not passed all requirements for Scout rank and will be given a chance to take this evening. WM. F. TYSON JR., Scribe.

Samuel Abrams Heads Troop 2 Baseball Team

At a business meeting of Troop 2 held at the Y. M. H. A. rooms, Samuel Abrams was elected captain of the baseball team. The first practice will be held May 13 at North and Cowden streets. All members who wish to try out for the team should report about 5:30 p. m. Plans for the ice cream festival are going ahead in force. Friday, May 10, a special meeting will be held to make arrangements for the W. S. S. parade on Monday, May 13. BERNARD COHN.

F. A. Kuhn, P. R. R. Man, Sergeant in France

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kuhn, of 637 Muench street, that their son, Howard Kuhn, formerly a well-known Pennsylvania railroad man in this city, has been made first sergeant of the medical detachment of the Fourth United States Infantry, A. E. F. He is now stationed in France. His letter says he "had a nice time going over, except for one day sick," and that he likes the country, "which is nice, though the houses are quaint and very old." Sergeant Kuhn's detachment was not troubled by U-boats.

Eat Twice and Have An Enjoyable Evening

Troop 21 had an enjoyable evening last Friday night. The program included games and eats. Scoutmaster Jenkins, his wife and daughter, and Mr. Virgin, were present. The Girl Scouts also were our guests. Mr. Virgin had an interesting talk on scouting and a number of good stereoscopic views were displayed by Assistant Scoutmaster Paul D. Wright. After the game, the big event of the evening, the eats, occupied the center of the stage, and every one was well taken care of. After the eating, more eats were brought forth. Every boy was pleased with the success of the evening and we hope to have another similar affair to-night. GLENN A. BOYLES.

Visit Nurse Praises Tanlac

Miss Mamie Rutter, a visiting nurse whose home is 1333 North Second street, Harrisburg, Pa., says, "When I say that Tanlac should be taken by everyone who is suffering from any kind of trouble, whether it be a stomach or a headache, I am speaking from experience and not from hearsay. "For I myself was a sufferer from a particularly distressing form of stomach trouble and I was relieved by Tanlac. "I would often get weak, dizzy spells, and I would pick anything up. I could eat scarcely anything, for if I did I was almost certain to get an attack of acute indigestion that would affect my heart and almost tie me in a knot. "Tanlac was recommended to me and I can truthfully say that it gave me almost instant relief. Since taking it my headache has disappeared; the trouble in my stomach seems to have been corrected, for I no longer have the sourness or flatulence. Moreover, I found that Tanlac was a splendid blood purifier and a fine tonic for the whole system. In fact, I found it more efficacious than any other remedy that I have ever used. "Tanlac is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others. Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irritable, weakness, nervousness, and loss of sleep. I was in a run-down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to cure me. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for other women, that I tried it and was cured. I am a stronger, nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure all female troubles."—Mrs. ALICE HELLER, Christopher, Ill.
