

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

ELEVEN BANDS TO BE MASSED

Interesting Features Planned For Patriotic Demonstration at Columbia

Columbia, Pa., May 10.—Chief Burgess D. Miller, as head of the patriotic demonstration to-morrow afternoon, has issued a proclamation calling upon all business places, including the hotels and manufacturing plants, to close between 2 and 4 o'clock, to permit everybody to take part in the parade, which is being held to observe the unfurling of the honor flag for the Third Liberty Loan drive, the start of the War Savings Stamps campaign next week and the Red Cross war fund drive, the week following. Eleven bands have been engaged for the parade, in which a division will be made up of fathers, mothers and wives of men in the service. When the flag is unfurled the eleven bands combined will play "The Star Spangled Banner," and march to the Town Hall afterward.

MRS. SARAH STRAWSBAUGH DIES
Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 10.—Mrs. Sarah Strawsbaugh, widow of John Strawsbaugh, died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Peter Baker, North Arch street, of heart trouble. Although she had been in ill health for some time, her condition was not considered serious and her death was unexpected. She was aged 68 years and was a life-long resident of Mechanicsburg and a member of the Church of God. The following children survive: Mrs. Peter Baker, with whom she lived; Mrs. Edward Koser, Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. William Lucas, all of Mechanicsburg; Mrs. J. P. Drawbaugh, of Harrisburg, and Philip Strawsbaugh, of Mechanicsburg; also a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. No arrangements for the funeral have been made up to this time.

Stiles Duncan, chairman Perry County War Savings Committee, announces that Perry county towns and townships have been organized for the "Pledge Week" campaign for the sale of War Stamps. A drive will be made during the week of May 12, and a sufficient number of solicitors will make a complete canvass of each home in Perry county.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE SUNDAY
New Bloomfield, Pa., May 10.—A patriotic service to be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church next Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, promises to be one of the best meetings of its kind held in the borough for some time. The Rev. Robert Bagnell, D. D., pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, will be the principal speaker.

BARN AND CROPS BURNED
Thompsontown, Pa., May 10.—A large barn on the farm of James Bashore, five miles west of town, was burned to the ground on Wednesday. About 600 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of oats and 25 bushels of wheat, and all farming implements were burned. The horses and cattle were in the fields at the time of the fire. With great difficulty the house was kept from burning.

INTERESTING DEBATE
Enola, Pa., May 10.—This afternoon a meeting of the Literary Society of the Enola High school was held in the assembly room. The program included musical numbers and decorations. Two features of the program were a debate between members of the Junior class and an oratorical contest between the Freshmen and Sophomores. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved, That government Ownership and Control of Railroads is Preferable to Private Ownership and Control." The affirmative debaters were Miss Margaret Hassler, Miss Martha Adams, Miss Miriam Troup; the negative arguments were presented by Miss Viola Knaub, Miss Cynthia Boyer and Roy Eshelman.
