Harrisburg Candidate Given Dinner at Wilkes-Barre and Greeted by Miners

Prominent laboring men, many of them leaders in the United Mine Workers of America, halled Senator E. E. Beidleman, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, as the best friend labor has ever had at the State Capitol, at a dinner tendered him at Wilkes-Barre leademan stand will spend the bank of the week in the upper end counties. He was at Hazleton and Wilkes-Barre vesterday. To-day he will tour the Wyoming Valley and to-morrow goes to Scranton and vicinity.

No candidate has ever received a greater welcome than the Senator got from the various labor crafts last night. The Central Labor Union of length and running schedules consequently will be increased.

The public will be adequately served under the new arrangement, said a railroad administration announcement, but probably more upper berths will be sold.

A similar curtailment is now being worked out for southwestern territory. About 35,000,000 train miles already have been saved in the pastern district.
