

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME... Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., Telegraph Building, Federal Square.

E. J. STACKPOLE, Pres. & Editor-in-Chief... GUS M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor.

Member of the Associated Press... The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association... Eastern office, Story, Brooks & Finley, New York City.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carriers, ten cents a week; by mail, $5.00 a year in advance.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1918

The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; The world and they that dwell therein. Ps. 24:1.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

THE Knights of Columbus in State convention here yesterday, by crowding three days' business into one and doing away with the usual social functions, set a good example for other organizations.

Lithuania, no doubt, will be happy to hear that the Kaiser has chosen her to bear part of Germany's war burdens.

WHAT THE BRIDGE NEEDS

THE Mulberry street bridge is as good as when it was built, expert engineers who have inspected it say. That was to have been expected. It would have been a great disappointment if any defects of construction had been found in the handsome structure.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

OUTLAWING OUTLAWS

THE Senate having passed a bill for the suppression of the I. W. W., it is to be hoped the House will do likewise and the President lose no time in signing the measure.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

The Pittsburgh Gazette-Times has completed a poll of candidates for Senatorial and legislative nominations in Western Pennsylvania in which 105 of 119 men addressed pledge themselves to vote for the prohibition amendment if nominated and elected, seven candidates are against it and seven are evasive.

The sober citizens of Pennsylvania have their opportunity now. Public sentiment is overwhelmingly with them. They have the votes. They can elect a sufficient number of Senators and Assemblymen to give John Barleycorn a severe dose.

The eloquent Bishop has a clear conception of the situation. It is regrettable that the busybodies who are opening themselves to the suspicion of being interested in prolonging the fight against the liquor traffic by this bone-headed and arbitrary course do not appear to see the danger as presented by Bishop Berry.

—Judge William D. Porter, of the Pennsylvania Superior Court, becomes unopposed candidate for that tribunal by the withdrawal of Stephen H. Huselet, of Pittsburgh, last night. Judge Porter was endorsed for renomination and reelection by the bars of almost every county of the state and there was a general hope that he would be re-elected.

—Governor Brumbaugh left last night for Pittsburgh, where he will appear with Highways Commissioner O'Neill in a final appeal to the Republicans of that end of the state for Mr. O'Neill's nomination.

Next Tuesday the voters of Pennsylvania will go to the polls and nominate candidates of the several parties for governor and other important offices. Those who favor the ratification of the prohibition amendment will endeavor, if they are really in earnest, to nominate men favorable to the amendment.

HOPE DEFERRED

THE new German electoral reform bill is one which keeps the word of promise to the ear while breaking it to the heart.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

OUTLAWING OUTLAWS

THE Senate having passed a bill for the suppression of the I. W. W., it is to be hoped the House will do likewise and the President lose no time in signing the measure.

THE SUNSET TOURNAMENT

BY BRIGGS

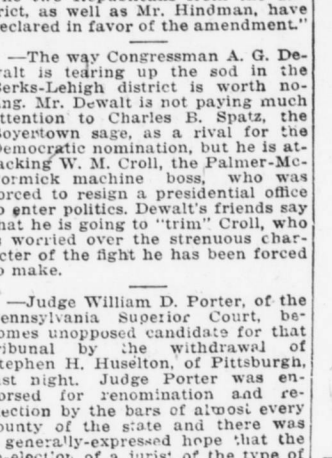

HARRY - YOU KNOW WE HAVE AN ENGAGEMENT WITH THE SINSABAUGHS TO PLAY BRIDGE TONIGHT

OH-H-MY HEAD! NOTHING DOING! I'M A SICK MAN

BEFORE THE DAYLIGHT SAVING IT WAS THIS

I WON'T BE HOME FOR DINNER I'M IN THE SUNSET TOURNAMENT

BUT NOW IT'S LIKE THIS

Over the Top in Penna.

They are telling the story of an old negro named Zeno, who lost his savings in a bank failure.

Why German Drives Don't Alarm Us

THE optimistic tone of the French and English papers in the face of the terrific and at first sight successful drives of the Germans requires, say the American correspondents, for there is practically nothing to choose between the allied and the German armies and equipment, though there are in the American Army has not appeared on the field in any force.

One Stump Speech Too Many

[From the New York World] When Speaker Clark in his speech at Fort Wayne appeared for the election of 1912, he especially urged November, he did what he could to make party the foremost issue of the campaign.

HOPE DEFERRED

THE new German electoral reform bill is one which keeps the word of promise to the ear while breaking it to the heart.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

The Pittsburgh Gazette-Times has completed a poll of candidates for Senatorial and legislative nominations in Western Pennsylvania in which 105 of 119 men addressed pledge themselves to vote for the prohibition amendment if nominated and elected, seven candidates are against it and seven are evasive.

The sober citizens of Pennsylvania have their opportunity now. Public sentiment is overwhelmingly with them. They have the votes. They can elect a sufficient number of Senators and Assemblymen to give John Barleycorn a severe dose.

The eloquent Bishop has a clear conception of the situation. It is regrettable that the busybodies who are opening themselves to the suspicion of being interested in prolonging the fight against the liquor traffic by this bone-headed and arbitrary course do not appear to see the danger as presented by Bishop Berry.

—Judge William D. Porter, of the Pennsylvania Superior Court, becomes unopposed candidate for that tribunal by the withdrawal of Stephen H. Huselet, of Pittsburgh, last night. Judge Porter was endorsed for renomination and reelection by the bars of almost every county of the state and there was a general hope that he would be re-elected.

—Governor Brumbaugh left last night for Pittsburgh, where he will appear with Highways Commissioner O'Neill in a final appeal to the Republicans of that end of the state for Mr. O'Neill's nomination.

Next Tuesday the voters of Pennsylvania will go to the polls and nominate candidates of the several parties for governor and other important offices. Those who favor the ratification of the prohibition amendment will endeavor, if they are really in earnest, to nominate men favorable to the amendment.

HOPE DEFERRED

THE new German electoral reform bill is one which keeps the word of promise to the ear while breaking it to the heart.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

OUTLAWING OUTLAWS

THE Senate having passed a bill for the suppression of the I. W. W., it is to be hoped the House will do likewise and the President lose no time in signing the measure.

THE SUNSET TOURNAMENT

BY BRIGGS

HARRY - YOU KNOW WE HAVE AN ENGAGEMENT WITH THE SINSABAUGHS TO PLAY BRIDGE TONIGHT

OH-H-MY HEAD! NOTHING DOING! I'M A SICK MAN

BEFORE THE DAYLIGHT SAVING IT WAS THIS

I WON'T BE HOME FOR DINNER I'M IN THE SUNSET TOURNAMENT

BUT NOW IT'S LIKE THIS

Over the Top in Penna.

They are telling the story of an old negro named Zeno, who lost his savings in a bank failure.

Why German Drives Don't Alarm Us

THE optimistic tone of the French and English papers in the face of the terrific and at first sight successful drives of the Germans requires, say the American correspondents, for there is practically nothing to choose between the allied and the German armies and equipment, though there are in the American Army has not appeared on the field in any force.

One Stump Speech Too Many

[From the New York World] When Speaker Clark in his speech at Fort Wayne appeared for the election of 1912, he especially urged November, he did what he could to make party the foremost issue of the campaign.

HOPE DEFERRED

THE new German electoral reform bill is one which keeps the word of promise to the ear while breaking it to the heart.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

The Pittsburgh Gazette-Times has completed a poll of candidates for Senatorial and legislative nominations in Western Pennsylvania in which 105 of 119 men addressed pledge themselves to vote for the prohibition amendment if nominated and elected, seven candidates are against it and seven are evasive.

The sober citizens of Pennsylvania have their opportunity now. Public sentiment is overwhelmingly with them. They have the votes. They can elect a sufficient number of Senators and Assemblymen to give John Barleycorn a severe dose.

The eloquent Bishop has a clear conception of the situation. It is regrettable that the busybodies who are opening themselves to the suspicion of being interested in prolonging the fight against the liquor traffic by this bone-headed and arbitrary course do not appear to see the danger as presented by Bishop Berry.

—Judge William D. Porter, of the Pennsylvania Superior Court, becomes unopposed candidate for that tribunal by the withdrawal of Stephen H. Huselet, of Pittsburgh, last night. Judge Porter was endorsed for renomination and reelection by the bars of almost every county of the state and there was a general hope that he would be re-elected.

—Governor Brumbaugh left last night for Pittsburgh, where he will appear with Highways Commissioner O'Neill in a final appeal to the Republicans of that end of the state for Mr. O'Neill's nomination.

Next Tuesday the voters of Pennsylvania will go to the polls and nominate candidates of the several parties for governor and other important offices. Those who favor the ratification of the prohibition amendment will endeavor, if they are really in earnest, to nominate men favorable to the amendment.

HOPE DEFERRED

THE new German electoral reform bill is one which keeps the word of promise to the ear while breaking it to the heart.

PEDESTAL FOR P. M. G.

THE espionage bill having passed let us recall that declaration of the repudiated Patron Saint of the Democratic party, whose political teachings, apparently, have become heresies in these days of the "New Freedom's" enlightenment.

BISHOP BERRY'S JOLT

IF there is one weakness in the campaign for the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, it is the see-sawing and lack of co-operation on the part of associations and individuals who ought to stand together as a solid unit in favor of the amendment.

OUTLAWING OUTLAWS

THE Senate having passed a bill for the suppression of the I. W. W., it is to be hoped the House will do likewise and the President lose no time in signing the measure.

Evening Chat

Men connected with the state and township maintenance forces declare that it is a greater effort to get the roads which radiate from the State Capital like the spokes of a wheel put into good shape this year than ever known before.

It is interesting to recall that the last French soldiers here was about 25 years ago. English were by no means the first white men on the banks of the Susquehanna.

Presence of the French soldiers caused many an argument in Harrisburg yesterday. One colored man was finally of the opinion that the "Blue Devils" were here to present and get his ethnology and war stuff all mixed up.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TEACHERS' SALARIES

We are hearing a great deal, and properly so, about "making the world safe for democracy," and in that task we each must take a proper share if we wish to be worthy sons of our sire.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

AN OBSTRUCTED VIEW. Bug Tourist - The view from the top of this mountain would be fine if it were not for those heavy clouds.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE. C. C. Green, new head of Clarion State Normal School, used to be superintendent of schools in Erie and Westmoreland towns.

DO YOU KNOW

That Harrisburg furnishes valuable parts for the machinery for making munitions? HISTORIC HARRISBURG. The Supreme Court used to meet in the Courthouse here during the building of the first Capitol.