

SCHWAB HOPES FOR DAILY YIELD FROM SHIPYARD

War Depends on Ships, He Tells League to Enforce Peace

By Associated Press Philadelphia, May 16.—Production of three to four 10,000-ton ships a day is the dream of Charles M. Schwab, director general of the emergency fleet corporation. He told the members of the national committee of the League to Enforce Peace at a dinner here last night that things in the shipbuilding line were going along with a vim and that every month would show a big increase in the output of vessels. Mr. Schwab topped off his remarks with a subscription of $10,000 toward the budget of the league.

day of the month and by the middle of next year when the great demand for ships will be before us, we ought to be producing at the rate of three or four big 10,000-ton ships per day.

Ukrainians Bitter Against Kaiser; City Council Out

London, May 16.—Anti-German agitation in the Ukraine continues unchecked, says a Vienna dispatch to the Lokai Anzeiger, of Berlin and transmitted from the Hague by the Exchange Telegraph Company. Ukrainian newspapers attack Germany bitterly and accuse her of using the Russian warships at Sebastopol for the purpose of seizing coal and Ukrainian merchantmen. It is reported that the Germans have mined the strait of Yenikale, closing the passage into the sea of Azov. Serious trouble, it is added, has occurred at Nikolaiwe, where the Germans have dismissed the city council.

Circulation Men Will Meet Here For October Session

Atlantic City, N. J., May 15.—Problems facing the daily newspapers, brought about by war conditions, were discussed by the circulation managers of dailies from five states when members of the Interstate Circulation Managers' Association held their semiannual convention at the Traymore today. Newspapermen from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia were in attendance and discussed ways and means for meeting the constantly soaring costs of producing newspapers. Speeches of welcome were made by Captain H. E. Smith, publisher of the Atlantic City Gazette-Review and City Clerk F. H. MacNamee. The feature address was made by Norman E. Mack, publisher of the Buffalo, N. Y., Times and former Democratic committee chairman. Mr. Mack traced the growth of American dailies and described his own interesting experiences in establishing his present successful daily.
