

THRIFT STAMPS SELL ON "HILL"

Almost Everyone in the Departments Has a Little Card With War Stamps on It

The Thrift Stamp habit has become deep rooted on Capitol Hill and although not much attention is being given to the "drive" in that center of official life this week, the fact remains that there are more offices with 100 per cent. Thrift Stamps in the state government than in any establishment in Harrisburg.

Looking Backward
It's just human nature to look back over the blizzard days old King Winter forced on us but a few months ago!
We can remedy or counteract some things that are "made by man," but the act of Providence are beyond everybody's control. So we have to take the weather as it comes.
We are not kicking, mind; simply observing conditions outside our control, which change conditions which are made by man.
And even with the obstacles in the way, the big snow storms that tied things up, we gave service last winter when most other things on wheels weren't running at all.
To-day schedules are maintained and everything is going along swimmingly. Even the jitneys that couldn't get around in the winter time are now taking advantage of the bright summer days.
But the street cars go on and must go on.

One case of infantile paralysis, with death, was reported from McSherrystown, Adams county.

To Speak To-morrow.—Adjutant General Beary will speak at a conference of second regiment officers at Wilkes-Barre to-morrow.

Question of Service.—Complaint that the Pennsylvania Gas Company operating in Warren county, has refused to furnish citizens of Saybrook, who live within 500 feet of a gas main with gas was filed at the Public Service Commission to-day and as the company contends that it must conserve in accord with public policy the question of what should constitute service will be threshed out.
Booth Resigns.—Newlin T. Both has resigned as a first lieutenant of the Swarthmore company of the Reserve Militia owing to his removal to Steelton.
Militia Orders.—General orders were issued to-day from Reserve Militia headquarters that the camp of instruction for officers would be held at Mt. Gretna on June 3 to 7 and that the camp of the brigade at Mt. Gretna would be held July 13 to 20, inclusive. Information has also been given that not less than 72 hours of drill will be required during the year in addition to camp, but week-end marches or bivouacs may be counted in the total hours, provided they do not exceed twenty per cent. of the time.

STEELTON NEW FOUNTAIN FOR CIVIC CLUB

Ornament to be Placed on Locust Street Steps Before Saturday

A new concrete fountain is to be placed on the Locust street steps and will be in use by Saturday, it was announced by an officer of the Civic Club this morning.
This fountain will replace the metal one which was destroyed when the Steelton Store Company warehouse was damaged by fire more than a year ago.
The mysterious disappearance of the fountain came about in this way. For four years the metal fountain was torn from its foundation in the fall and placed in the store company warehouse for the winter. In the spring of each year the fountain was taken from its winter storage, cleaned and polished and mounted on the Locust street steps.
Last year the fountain was not put into position. Why it was not, the public as a whole did not know, but Civic Club members were informed. Residents as a whole did not know the fountain was in storage at the time of the fire and was totally destroyed and that the Civic Club was unable to get another one at the time. This was the reason and matters could not be adjusted until this year.
The concrete fountain will be placed on the steps permanently, thereby eliminating the trouble of dismounting and placing into position each year.

Mr. Saussaman pointed out that voters who are negligent are nothing more than "fourflushers."
Ross K. Bergstresser, who is in charge of the organization work for the Dauphin County Ratification Committee reported that preachers are all stirred up over the question and were presenting an active and united front, together with their congregations, for the "dry" candidates. C. W. McCoy, one of the legislative candidates endorsed by the committee, was another speaker.
