

DR. ABBOTT PUTS KAISER OUT OF PEACE PRAYER

Venerable Churchman Hurls Shafts of Wrath Among Convention Delegates

Philadelphia, May 17.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, white-bearded, venerable and solemn, threw into the midst of the League to Enforce Peace at last night's session the most burning righteous and relentless profession of wrath a Christian minister has probably ever made.

"The Archbishop of York has told us," and the warning right arm was lifted high above the heads of the audience. "Has told us that we must pray for our enemies, even as Christ on His cross asked of the Father that He forgive his murderers 'for they know not what they do.'"

"Yes, for the Roman soldiers who carried out the orders of the Roman Pilate and the Jewish Caiaphas; the unwitting instruments of witting knaves; but—he did not pray for Pilate."

"I would offer up that prayer for ignorant and unwitting criminals; I would not offer it for the Kaiser or for his pals!"

"I may be tempted to lie to my fellowmen, but I will not lie to my God."

"Any man who proposes a compromise with Germany or a peace negotiation with this band of brigands is a traitor!"

Won Hearts of Hearers They had risen to greet him when he was introduced, risen with applause and clapping; and he went to him honor when he ended, and they rose with shouts of gratitude and approval. No one in the long sessions of the first day had so proved a place in their hearts as Doctor Abbott.

Delegates from every state in the union filled the seating capacity of the Academy of Music at the opening session of the third annual convention of the league.

Mother Goes For Son Too Young For France; Used Brother's Trousers

An older brother's long trousers served as an excellent camouflage suit for Gilbert D. Werner, 17 North Seventeenth street, who enlisted in the United States Army last August. It was not until his mother, Mrs. Emma L. Werner, went to Camp Dix and showed the captain of his company, a family records proving him only fifteen years old, that Werner was forced to admit his age.

Werner enlisted in the local recruiting service with a number of his friends, August 22, giving his age as 18. He was sent to Columbus and after several transfers, to Camp Dix. His mother said she thought him too young for overseas service, and went to Camp Dix Tuesday night to obtain his discharge. She returned without the boy, whom, it is understood, has received his honorable discharge. He was expected to arrive in Harrisburg this afternoon.

An older brother, Daniel Werner, is now in France, serving in the expeditionary forces.

Burbank Evolves Wheat Containing More Gluten

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 17.—A "superwheat," containing fourteen per cent gluten, has been evolved by Luther Burbank, the California horticulturist, after experiments extending over eleven years, it was announced here yesterday.

The wheat may be grown from Hudson Bay to Patagonia. The new wheat is said to be of the winter variety, hardy and producing a white flour.

and Major Garrison and aids. There will be a number of invited guests.

Private N. Perry, who lost an arm at Lens while serving with the Canadian forces, arrived in the city today and will remain until Tuesday. Private Perry will appear in a number of places on behalf of the Red Cross.

Auxiliaries Coming Strong Reports received this morning by William Jennings are to the effect that the numerous out-of-town auxiliaries are all ready for the $100,000 drive next week; and that their teams of workers are confident of a success greater than that of last June.

Industrial teams to-day canvassed the Central Iron and Steel Works. They were assisted by members of the Flying Squadron, composed of young girls who are helping the committees of men. They all wore the Red Cross uniforms of white.

It was announced to-day that all Front street porches from State to Market which to-morrow afternoon bear Red Cross banners may be used by Red Cross members.

Executive headquarters for the second Red Cross War Fund have been opened in Room 70, Kunkel building, with Victor Lecoq III and Mrs. Herbert E. Lucas in charge. The headquarters may be reached by Bell telephone 1983.

Mrs. James I. Chamberlain is chairman of the department which will have booths in various locations throughout the city, these being in charge of well-known Red Cross workers, as follows:

Clothes May Look Good--The Thing Is For Them to Wear Good

When you buy clothes of such long-established goodness as those coming from the factories of Hirsh-Wickwire, Hickey-Freeman, August Brothers, and Samuel W. Peck and Co., you know you are getting clothes of marked distinction.

Clothes are like men—their real character is way down inside, and only shows up after intimate acquaintance.

You don't have to wait a month or so to find out what kind of wear your suit is going to give you when you pick a suit at random from our stock. The assurance is there at the very time of purchase of quality supreme, of approved style and of excellent wear.

Wars may come with all the numerous disadvantages in clothes production, but the quality of the garments from the houses that back up our clothing stocks is steadily maintained, making it as safe for any man or youth to buy a good suit in war times as in peace times.

Men's Suits $20.00 to $50.00

Handsome three-button conservative models. Smart snug-fitting two-button semi-English models. Ample varieties in patterns and styles for men of all builds.

Young Men's Suits $15.00 to $35.00
