

Girls Enroll to Boost Helps to Win the War

Twenty-seven women enrolled as charter members in the Girls' Recruiting Corps at the women's patriotic meeting held under the auspices of the Harrisburg Recruiting party at the Technical High School auditorium last evening. Mrs. William I. Laubenstein presided at the meeting and was chosen chairman. It is hoped by next Monday night to have 100 members in the corps.

The work the organization will be asked to do will be to assist in exterminating German propaganda, aid patriotic demonstrations, Red Cross campaigns and other campaigns which will help some great bene-fiary, and in influencing young men to enlist.

FIVE GENERATIONS IN FAMILY Red Lion, Pa., May 17.—There is no evidence of any race suicide in a family where five generations exist between the age of eighty-nine and three years, as does in the family of Mrs. Leah Barnhart, a resident of this borough. Mrs. Barnhart is only eighty-nine, yet she is a great great-grandmother. Not only that, one of these, Raymond Sechrist, of East Yoe, expects to be called to the colors within the next two weeks. Mrs. Barnhart lives with her daughter, Mrs. David Stine, and despite her age is still in the best of health.

Loyal Order of Moose Buy War Saving Stamps

William Bristol, of the John Heathcote Agency, spoke before Lodge No. 107, Loyal Order of Moose last evening and as a result the Moose purchased $1,000 worth of War Savings Stamps. The Moose have been engaged in all manner of patriotic work.

NEWPORT CAMPAIGN OPENS Newport, Pa., May 17.—Newport's campaign for pledge week in the National War Savings Stamp campaign opened with a bang last evening, when a big parade was held. The brilliant pageant was headed by the Citizen's band. All Newport children participated in the event.

The Rev. W. C. Ney, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church, is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale of W. S. S. in Newport. He has divided Newport into six districts.

TO PENBROOK RED CROSS Members of the Penbrook Red Cross Society will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at their headquarters instead of at 3 as was previously announced. Vells will be furnished to those who have not already secured them.
