C. E. RALLY IN TECH HIGH SCHOOL TOMORROW

Hundreds of men and women representing many religious and other organizations of this city and surrounding counties are expected to attend the great mass meeting to be held in the Technical High school to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock when Dr. Daniel A. Poling, D. D. of Boston, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, will deliver an address on one of the important subjects of the day.

Since becoming associate president of the Christian Endeavor Society Dr. Poling has not lost his zeal for temperance, but is president of the great federation of temperance organizations, which has done so much during recent years to push prohibition throughout the nation.

Arthur Gardner, president of the Fourth Street Church of God C. E. Society, will have charge of the services on Sunday evening assisted by Walter Zedlers. All persons who desire to attend a live meeting are urged to be present.

"Now and Always For Christ," is the motto of the State Street United Brethren Society and the members are striving to make the work of the present term more effective than any previous years.

Valdosta, Georgia, Presbyterian Presbyterian Endeavors have given an invalid's chair to the county almshouse and Bibles to the city prison.

Miss Marie Nell, well-known endeavor in C. E. circles, will address the Christ Lutheran Society on Sunday evening.

A Wilmington, N. C., society gets out a monthly mimeographed sheet of jokes which the members use, with great matter, in their letters to soldiers in camp.

Miss Rita Jones will conduct the services and all persons desiring to enjoy a good time are urged to attend the Endeavor meeting at Market Street Baptist Church on Sunday evening.

The Rev. John F. Cowan, D. D., formerly associate editor of The Christian Endeavor World, is working for the Y. M. C. A. in two camps of sailors, one of them near San Diego, Cal.

Pine Street Presbyterian Endeavors promise a good meeting to be held in the C. E. rooms on Sunday evening. Miss Helen Sloop, a prominent Endeavor worker will have charge of the service.

Harris Street United Evangelical League will hold a well-planned meeting on Sunday evening. Vincent Stanford, vice-president of the society, will have charge of the services.

The Endeavors of St. John's Lutheran Society, Steiltion, celebrated their 30th anniversary with appropriate exercises recently. State Secretary E. B. Macroy, of Pittsburgh, delivered an excellent address upon the occasion.

W. H. Jacobs will address the Endeavors at the St. Matthew's Lutheran Society on Sunday evening. All Endeavors and friends are invited to attend.

At Sholapur, India, twenty-three Endeavors, some of them from heathen homes, recently joined the church.

First—The Rev. Dr. W. E. Dougherty, pastor, will preach at 10.30, "The Power of Affirmation" and at 7.30, "The Keeping of Faith." Sunday school at 1.45.

Second—The Rev. Dr. S. Edwin Rupp, pastor, will preach at 10.30, "A Prophecy of Christ," and at 7.30, "The Tenderness of the Master." Sunday school at 2.

State—The Rev. H. F. Rhoad, pastor, will preach at 10.45, "The Infilling of the Spirit," and at 7.30, "Unselfishness." Sunday school at 9.30.

Derry Street—The Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor, will preach at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 2.

BIG RALLY AT STEVENS M. E.

English Officer to Tell How Hun Offensive Was Checked

How General Foch checked von Hindenburg's drive in Flanders and incidents of the great battle will be told by a British officer—just from the front lines—at a big patriotic Red Cross mass meeting to be held to-morrow evening at 10.30 o'clock in the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church.

The annual five-day bible conference of the Interdenominational Bible Conference Association of our city will be held in the First Baptist Church, Second and Pine Streets, Harrisburg, May 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th, 1918.

A committee of laymen of our city churches have been carrying on these conferences monthly since October, 1913, and close each season with a five-day session.

The committee have secured two of the strongest teachers in the field. The Rev. Lewis Sperry Chaffer, for many years a teacher at the Moody School, Northfield, Mass., and the Rev. W. Leon Tucker, of Salem Reformed choir is to sing a singularly effective anthem to-morrow, "When the Day of Pentecost Was Come." In this number Charles Cassel, bass, has an incidental solo, which is striking and impressive and which this splendid singer is sure to offer sincerely.

At the first annual banquet of the Harrisburg Organists' Association, at which David Edgar Crozier was the guest of honor, the greater number of Harrisburg organists were present.

At Westminster Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning the tenor soloist of the choir, August G. Shantz, will sing Dudley Buck's "Fear Not Ye, O Israel," one of the most impressive of the Buck compositions.

In the same composer's "The God of Abraham Praise," to be sung at Messiah Lutheran Church, the organist, Abner W. Hartman, has a delightful solo number, "He By Himself Hath Sworn," and Mr. Hartman is sure to give it fervent expression.
