VOTERS DECIDE AT PRIMARIES TODAY WHO'LL BE ON TICKETS

Senator Penrose Declares Sproul and Beidleman Have Won the Republican Nominations

JUDGE PORTER GETS STATE-WIDE VOTE

gressional Districts; 28 Senate Seats and 207 in House to Be Named

Primary election is being held in ennsylvania to-day for the nomina-on of complete state tickets and undidates for Congress and Legis-ture

There were spirited contests in the Republican party for virtually every office on the state ticket, from Governor down. The principal fight of the Democrats was for the gubernatorial nomination, the candidates for which were Joseph F. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, and Eugene C. Bonninwell, Judge of the municipal court of Philadelphia. There were also several contests in the thirty-two Congressional districts of the state.

The campaign of the Republican factions for the gubernatorial nomination and that for Lieutenant Governor was especially vigorous. United States Senator Penrose early today claimed that State Senator William C. Sproul, for Governor, and State Senator E. E. Beidleman, for Lieutenant Governor, would win respectively over Highway Commissioner J. Jenny O'Neil and Congressman John R. K. Scott by large majorities. O'Neil supporters, on the other hand, predicted a victory for their candidate, while State Senator E. H. Vare claimed that Scott would be nominated.

Candidates were to be nominated for thirty-two Congressional dis-re nominated.

Candidates were to be nominated or thirty-two Congressional dispircts, twenty-eight seats in the State senate and 207 in the lower House of the Legislature. There were ourteen candidates for the four cominations for Congress-at-Large.

Light Vote Is

Polled in City

Fears of party leaders that the vote in the city would be a light one were dissipated at an early hour this afternoon, when in twelve of the fifty-three election districts in the city a total of 592 votes polled of 3,002 qualified electors who were enrolled was announced.

The reports were from widely scattered districts in all parts of the city, both business and residential. While in some districts the percent, and in estimating the entire city it was said that probably about one-fourth of the voters had cast ballots during the morning and early afternoon. Part of the decrease is due to men who have enlisted or been called into Army service since last November, it was said.

Among the districts from which reports were secured were the following: Third ward, First precinct, 55 yetes cast 155 registered. Thire fourther fourth of the voters and the central Iron and Steel Company this morning. He was putting a new magnet on the was pu Bridgeport, Conn., May 21.—German submarines are no longer considered a menace in offensive tactics by the United States Navy, in the opinion of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, who spoke here yesterday.

Mr. Roosevelt, in opening the Red Cross campaign here, said:

"Of course, we cannot hope to absolutely wipe out the German submarine. However, we hope that each week's report will show a decrease, as has been shown in the reports of the last few weeks."

TO AUCTION RARE RED CROSS POSTERS

THE Harrisburg Chapter of the Red Cross will auction off the few remaining Harrison Fisher Red Cross nurse posters remaining in its possession.

There has been a great demand for this wonderful work of art, and Washington headquarters has asked all local chapters to return the pictures that remain. A few, however, have been retained by Harrisburg chapter for those who desire them for framing purposes. These will be sold or auctioned in the next few days. The pictures are beautiful examples of their kind and approach very closely the great works of the French war-poster makers. THE Harrisburg Chapter of

ARMY OF 750,000 ON LONG FRONT

Delay in the launching of the expected German offensive apparently is giving the allied troops concern as they improve their position here and there by strong local attacks. Whether the Germans are prepared to renew the heavy fighting is not yet clear, but strangely, they do not react against the Anglo-French nibbling tactics.

The great masses of the German and Austrian people, this informant declares are more than sick of the war. They think and talk of nothing but bread and their morale is so low that the governments are of the same of the s fearful of Bolshevik movements.

Among the incidents given in support of the stry of terrible want is the case of two prisoners of war employed at the gas works in Vienna, who he declares, were murdered by fellow workers, who ate part of their bodies. The Arbeiter Zeitung of Vienna demanded an investigation, and the entire issue was confiscated in consequence. The affair was referred to in parliament, but was hushed up in the Vienna press.

HALF MILE RIVER PARK STRIP GIVEN ALONG WEST SHORE

E. M. Hershey, Through City Planning Commission, Dedicates Land to Make River Front Park For River View and Other Cumberland Valley Communities; Other Property Owners to Be Approached

Through the co-operation and over the old McCormick estate farm

Through the co-operation and with the consent of E. M. Hershey, the well-known real estate developer, the City Planning Commission has been able to procure the dedication of nearly a half-mile of land along the West Shore of the Susquehanna just above Wormleysburg for a river park like that on the Harrisburg side of the river.

Chairman E. C. Herman, of the Planning Commission, expressed himself to-day as delighted with the dedication of this piece of river shore property on the Cumberland side and said unquestionably the public spirit of Mr. Hershey would set an example for other owners, that he hoped would result in dedication of all the property fronting the city between the river road on the West Shore to low water mark for park purposes. This would give the people of the West Shore perpetually a river park like that in which Harrisburg side free from buildings such as too often mar the edges of rivers. It would also preserve the frame of trees and greenery which now surrounds the Susquehanna river basin as viewed from Harrisburg. Harrisburg has done its part by the West Shore in this pespect, Mr. Herman points out and the West Shores owes as much to the city, to say nothing of looking after its own interests.

Another Big Development The latest E. M. Hershey development lies between the Susquehanna river and the Northern Central railroad line just above Wormleysburg and was made possible by taking Secretary McAdoo.
