AROUND THE BASES

Did you notice to-day how the mascot number "five" sticks out in the big league scores like a clean collar on a tramp?

The National League's greatest battery will be reunited when Bill Killefer is called in the draft. Instead of being sent to Camp Custer, as at first intended, he will be shipped to Camp Funston, where Grover Cleveland Alexander is stationed.

Floyd Rose, of Pitt's athletic committee, is strong for athletics in war-time. He says: "The demand for athletics and coaches for the supervision of games and physical development in soldier camps abroad and the insufficient number likewise for the Army camps at home seem to answer conclusively whether or not the colleges should continue to engage an instructor as far as possible all major sports."
