RED CROSS PARADE

It is reported that ten cases of smallpox have developed in the old paint works and every percaution is being taken by the board of health of town to keep from spreading the disease. Six watchmen have been put on and fully seventy-five have been vaccinated.

Harold Pugh, the 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pugh, of Ann street, fell down a flight of stairs at his home Sunday afternoon and when the child landed, it was in

RED CROSS PARADE

The Red Cross demonstration held in Middletown last evening was one of the largest held in town for some time. Five bands were in line. The parade started promptly at 7.45.

The Red Cross Chapter of town had a very large turnout and the Red Cross Auxiliary of Highspire, had a Jarge number, in line. The local car plant turned out full and strong and had a float in line. After the parade they proceeded to the markethouse where the speakers who were the Rev. Jules Forn, Dr. T. C. McCarrell, the Rev. James Cunningham and J. B. Cunningham, of Harrisburg spoke.

Contract For Decoration of Post Office to Be Let

Before the end of the week it is expected that a contract will be awarded for the decoration of the wall so find purchase exceeds the substitutes on hand it will be necessary for the walls and a decision has finally been reached to paint them without the canvas base.

Postmaster Sites expects to occupy a section of the building with the parcel post department on the first of June, but he is not sure when the entire force can be transferred to the reconstructed quariers.

It is probable that the two substations in Maclay street and Thirteenth street near Market will be abandoned and the whole force concentrated in the main building in the Federal Square. When these stations were established several years ago the Federal building was so congested that it was absolutely necessary to find quarters for part of the force outside. With the parcel post development, however, and other postal changes the substation arrangement is not efficient and it is believed better service will result from a concentration of the entire force in the main building.
