the State Government Was Given Cordial Endorsement at the Folls Yesterday. Senator Beidleman Was Given a Particularly Heavy Vote, by Workingmen.

Senator Sproul Grateful For Support of Party

CHESTER, May 22-Senator Sproul gave out the following state-

CHESTER, May 22—Senator Sproul gave out the following statement:

"THE large vote by which I have been nominated for Governor of Pennsylvania by the Republicans of the state, is naturally most gratifying to me. No one could be insensible to the compliment thus expressed. I am particularly proud of the fact that in my own home county, and in the neighboring counties where I am known best, my vote has been so remarkably large. The big majority which has been given to me in the city of Philadelphia has justified my claim that I would not be a factional candidate. I have, apparently, had the support of the great bulk of the Republicans there, and if my candidacy now, and my administration after I shall have been elected, will help to put an end to the factional misunderstandings in Philadelphia and make for better conditions there and in the state, I shall, indeed, be grateful.

"I am thankful that my campaign has been carried to a successful conclusion without resort upon my part, or in my behalf by any one, to the best of my knowledge, of any personal attacks, public denunciation or last card slander upon any connected with the opposition.

position.

"The decisive character of the Republican primaries fills me with a sense of deep responsibility, a consciousness that a great confidence has been placed in me by the voters of my party. With a thorough appreciation of my duty as a candidate and of the work that is ahead of me. I give myself over to that duty and that work, and promise a most complete effort to deserve the fath in me which my friends and the people in general have shown. I have no grudges to pay, no enemies to punish, no debts to discharge—only a desire to lead a united party to victory in November, that we may render devoted service to the Nation and to our people here in Pensylvania.

Senator Sproul Wins Own District by 156 to 6; Children Greet

Chester, May 22.—Senator Sproul carried his own district in Delaware county by a vote of 155 to 6. The nominee for Governor on the Republican ticket cast his vote a few hours after the polls opened yester-day morning in Nether Providence come to me unofficially, I am not surprised at the nomination of Senator Sproul for Governor. Though a supporter of J. Denny O'Neil, I have and still do take Senator Sproul's statements regarding his support of prohibition at their face value. This is no new statement, but the repeating of my declarations to scores of men during the campaign. If the proves with the final returns that Bonniveli is nominated on the Demonstrated on the Demonstrate of Chester. The polling place was but a short distance from the located in an abandoned scent of the twenty-first ballot handed out and the
