TELL ENGAGEMENT Give Entertainment OF AUGUSTA HEAN

Attractive Local Girl to Marry Major Dearth, of Camp Grant, in Early Summer

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hean, of 1717 North Second street, announce the engagement of their attractive young daughter, Miss Augusta Rahn Hean, to Major Walter A. Dearth, formerly a prominent Pittsburgh surgeon of the Allegheny General Hospital, now chief of surgical service of the base hospital, Camp Grant, Ill. The marriage will be an early summer event.

Miss Hean who is most popular among the younger set is a musician of ability, and an ardent Red Cross worker. She completed her education by extensive travel and being an excellent conversationalist is able to speak entertainingly of her trips.

Kitchin Quotes President as Saying Revenue Legislation Unnecessary at Present

Washington, May 24.—A decision regarding revenue legislation by Congress was postponed at noon today by Secretary McAdoo until later in the day. Although Mr. McAdoo had promised to advise Congressional leaders of his final decision by noon, he telephoned Senator Simply noon, he telephoned Senator Simply noon, he telephoned Senator Simplements. sional leaders of his final decision by noon, he telephoned Senator Sim-mons, of North Carolina, chairman, of the Senate Finance Committee, that he would have to study the treasuryr situation a little longer. Majority Leader Kitchin, announc-ing that Secretary McAdoo had promised to give his final judgment late this afternoon, added this state-ment:

late this afternoon, added this statement:

"There isn't going to be a revenue bill at this session unless the President says it is necessary, and the President has told us that he did not think it was necessary."

After discussing the revenue question with his advisers in the Treasury Department, Secretary McAdoo went to the White House.

It was understood at the Treasury the secretary still felt that legislation should be undertaken at this session.
