'Snowball' Winters Now Wants Action

Oh, you 'Snowball' Winters; how do you like this weather down at camp? Yes, the star right-hander of the West End A. C., who used to have 'em all guessing, has returned to camp from his furlough, and all he wants now is a hurry order to go over and fire some in-shoot bombs at the Huns threatening Paris.

Fish are moody and capricious. Will they on the opening day rise to the fly, rush the plug, display their cannibalistic proclivities on live bait or will they be attracted by the succulent worms offered by the smelt boy, nosing his bait for an instant to gently grab and quietly swim away, pulling the float under water, to be finally called to an account by ye lad setting his hook?

Trap, Gun and Rod by Tom Marshall

Hark! The Red Gods call! Solons have decreed and general fishing ethics declare the bass and salmon fishing season open on June 15. You are at liberty to capture with hook and line those scaled beauties in number and size to the legal limit.

When the Red Gods Call

When the Red Gods call, that intently fishing urchin, scratched only by answering the call, is not a respecter of person. That impelling mental desire to go afield is contagious. No person with real genuine red blood in his veins is immune from the influence. The list includes the highbrow or kid-gloved fisherman who derives pleasure only from casting and manipulating with floating lures, his dry fly, his spinner, the knock-about or get-the-mother fisherman, with his painted lure or plugs, delighting in his long casts and rapid reeling.

Days of the Deer Slayer Planned for Penna. Hunters

State officials here, and particularly they of the Game Commission, are profoundly concerned in the effect that this war will have on sports in general and particularly on the sports that include handling a gun. Even at this early date it is taken for granted that the whole country will see a revival in use of the rifle to encourage marksmanship and aid in the war effort.

Thompstontown Hoists Flags on Memorial Day

Thompstontown, Pa., June 1.—Even though Thompstontown's business center was wiped out by fire two months ago, she shows her patriotic spirit by going over the top in all the demands made upon her. The allotment in the Red Cross drive was $115, while $183 was raised. Three flags—the Stars and Stripes, a community service flag containing twenty-four stars and the Liberty Loan flag were all floated to the breeze on Thursday when a patriotic demonstration was held in the afternoon.

Governor Compliments Editor on Biography

Middleburg, June 1.—Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh has set his seal of approval upon the report of the Snyder County Historical Society which contained the biography of Governor Snyder. Recently the Governor was the guest of the society at the unveiling of a tablet in honor of the old ex-Governor at Selinsgrove. Commenting upon the report which followed and upon the celebration at Selinsgrove, the Governor writes a letter to George W. Wagenseller, editor of the Middleburgh Post, in which he says: "Dear Mr. Wagenseller: I appreciate very much your kindness in sending me the report of Snyder County Historical Society containing the biography of Governor Snyder which you prepared with so much care and skill."
