BIG CROWD SEES STEELTON WIN

Eddie Plank Toys With Enemy Batters, Aided by Good Fielding

Al Mamaux, one-time star pitcher for Pittsburgh, had nothing but a smile and a prayer at Saturday's big league game in Steelton, and so George Cockill's swift circuit veterans romped away with the first victory on home grounds to the tune of 6-1.

The event again proved that biggest baseball will pay out in the "provinces," for at least 2,500 fans did the San Juan stunt climbing Cottage Hill without even a murmur.

The great crowd went away thoroughly satisfied, for it had a good run for its money. There was Umpire Rudolph, with hair like a Bolshevik and twinkling eyes, who gave all hands the full value of admission coin.

On Wednesday the Steelton club will play the P. & R. railroad team and their next league contest here is with Lebanon on June 15.
