

Peace With Victory
Republican Slogan
 Boston, June 4.—Three paramount policies of the Republican party were outlined by Will Hays, of Indiana, chairman of the Republican National Committee, at a dinner for the Republican members of the Massachusetts Legislature given by the Republican State Committee here last night.
 "The Republican party," he said, "stands for, first, everything in our power to win the war now; second, for peace with victory and never a peace by compromise bargaining of principles, which would violate American rights, interests and honor and make of our sacrifice a sacrifice to be made again by our grandchildren; third, to prepare in a sane manner to solve the immeasurable problems of reconstruction that come after the war."

POLICE MAY TAKE MARRIED MEN
 Vacancies in the Force Will Require Enlistment of Men
 Up to Forty Years of Age

Married men who are under forty years of age may be enlisted in the Pennsylvania State Police if the twenty-eight vacancies which now exist in the force under conditions laid down by the department according to that was learned at the Capitol today. The draft has taken eight experienced men, and while those in service until a short time ago have been put into deferred classes, the men whose terms are expiring have been going to war or into service of corporations and railroads where there is more attractive pay.

The men to be enlisted will be required to spend several nights a week at barracks. They must be between thirty-one and forty and they will be taken close to the latter age if in good physical condition and able to stand the work of the policeman.

The usual summer demand for presence of state policemen is appearing.

Board to Meet.—Members of the State Board of Education have been called for a meeting to be held in Philadelphia tomorrow to discuss the purchase of additional normal schools, rural school consolidation and similar work.

Commissioners Here.—The State Compensation Board held its first June meeting here today to consider Central Pennsylvania cases. It will be in Philadelphia the remainder of the week and sit in Pittsburgh June 12 for western cases.

To Enforce Act.—Warning to officials of a number of counties where constables have failed to enforce the dog license act has been issued from the State Department of Agriculture, whose chief plans to take up the matter of enforcing compliance with the Attorney General. It is likely that the course adopted in McKean county, where State Police shot unlicensed dogs and arrested owners and constables who did not comply, will be followed.

To Call Meeting.—Banking Commissioner Daniel F. Lafean, said this afternoon that he would issue within a few days the call for the meetings.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS
WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities arise from an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five-grain tablets taken in a little water, with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and the Bismarck form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you like at all breakfast meals, and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

A Well-Known Painter
Joins the Masses in Praising the Merits of Tonall

"I have been suffering for the past two years with a disordered stomach," says W. J. Lowe, of 834 East Walnut street, Pa. "I had appeared to be growing worse, and at times, I would suffer great pain. I was told by some physicians that I had lead poisoning, anyway, what I had, I could not get rid of. I was not feeling as I should nor did I have the ambition I should have. After eating I felt miserable—very queasy, constipated, gas would form and a sort of dizzy feeling would follow. "It is not necessary for me to say how many different remedies I tried and what the results were, but I will say that two bottles of Tonall has done more to relieve my miseries than all the other medicines I ever tried and I feel indeed a wonderful change and am frank to say that Tonall has really done more for me than I ever expected in such a short time."

Tonall is sold at Gorgas' drugstore, Harrisburg, where its merits are being explained by the Tonall chemist, and also at the Hershey drugstore, Hershey, Pa.

ment which he announced Saturday

Settling Big Case.—Steps in settlement of financial claims against directors of the Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company, of Philadelphia, are being closed up here today by Attorney General Brown and Henry W. Davis, of Sharon, former Deputy Attorney General, who was in charge of the case. About $400,000 will be paid over. The other actions against the directors will now be dropped, it was stated.

Big Transit Case.—Final presentation of the argument for and against approval of the lease of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, and the city of Philadelphia, was made before the Public Service Commission in Philadelphia, and the commission will likely appoint a special day for consideration of the proposition. Numerous questions asked by commissioners during the sitting to-day indicated some hostility to the proposition. The principal contention for the approval of the lease made by Ella Ames Ballard, counsel for the company, was that war activity had completely changed the situation as regards transit in Philadelphia because that city was one of the busiest places on the globe and cars which the commission itself had ordered bought for next year were urgently needed now. James Collins Jones, counsel for the Chamber of Commerce, favored the lease as necessary for clarification of the transit problem and the protection of invested capital as well as for public convenience. C. Oscar Beasley, counsel for the business men's organization, assailed the lease as loading on the public financial sins of the past and in the course of his argument indicated that he thought there should be physical valuation and that the commission instead of surrendering authority in approving the lease should behind all of the leases of the years gone by and say what companies having original franchises should be paid and what the public should give in the form of fare to pay them. William Draper Lewis and other attorneys will appear later in the day.

Sproul Account.—William C. Sproul, successful candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, to-day filed his personal expense account, showing expenditures of $4,278.84, stating that no contributions were made to him, but that all were made to the Sproul campaign committee, which handled them. He spent $1,000 to the committee, spent $291.25 on personal traveling expenses and paid $600 to E. J. Fry-singer and $585.33 for dissemination of information and other expenses. The other items were mainly for advertising, etc. Anderson H. Walters certified to spending $1,048; Joseph McLaughlin to $394.48; Charles M. Clement to $33.50 with $68.27; M. C. Harner, $190.23 with $22.25 owed; Thomas Robins to $3,100.27 with $15 owed. Asher R. Johnson spent less than $50 as did several other candidates.

Porter's Big Lead.—Returns from sixty counties show 156,673 votes for Judge W. D. Porter for the Superior Court nomination and $9,190 for Stephen H. Huselson. Butler, Chester and other late counties were today asked to hurry returns.

Leigh Sherrer, Williamsport, to be first and second lieutenants respectively, Company H, Second Infantry.
