The screen and stage boast many pairs of devoted sisters, who, throuse each other's efforts or "Naughty," their own individual Naughty," talent, secure fame and at Regent position. The latest of sisters, Enid, now a well-known star, and Marjorie, who is making her photo-dramatic debut with her "big sister" in "Naughty, Naughty," now showing at the Regent Theater. It may well be said, however, that Miss Marjorie Bennett has made her cwn way to success, having studied and worked as an extra in many former pictures until her own merit earned for her the prominent role she takes in this picture. In "The Hired Man," which is to be shown to-morrow and Saturday, there is not only an old-fashioned "corn-huskin," but also a real barn dance, with a barel of cider and all the boys and girls in their best "bib and tucker."

Among the many pleasing features on the vaudeville bill at Paxtang Park this week is one that is conspicuous Paxtang Park for its coriginality and the probability that there is no other act on the stage like it. The offering that enjoys this distinction is Chief Iron Hand and his squaw, who are the only full-blooded Indians in the world who do a bicycle act. Nor is Iron Hand's act like the familiar bicycle stunt done by the white man. It is characteristic of the Indian's conception of how the thing should be done, and makes a strange as well as novel contrast ne thing should be done, and makes strange as well as novel contrast ith the other bicycle stunts you ay have seen. The balance of the park show is ade up of high-class standard acts, nd the whole bill makes a most leasing evening's entertainment.

BABY TIGERS WITH RINGLING CIRCUS

THURSDAY EVENING,

"They wouldn't hurt a flea."

That is the verdict of little Daisy Agee regarding the trio of tiger cubs which see daily fondles with all the joy of the mistress of a family of dolls. The spotted pets belong to Judy, jungle queen of the Ringling Brothere Cus menagerie. Daisy belongs to Mrs. John Agee, wife of the equestrial director of the big show. The mothers, for reasons that may well be imagined, have merely a nodding acquaintance. Mrs. Agee frequently pauses to pay her respects at Mrs. Judy's apartment, but she has never been side.

Daisy has maned her playmates. She calls them "Winkin, Blinkin and Nod." Winkin, Blinkin and Nod." Winkin, Blinkin and Nod." Statements and ride bareback, and whole companies of prancing Shetland calls them "Winkin, Blinkin and Nod." Statements and ride bareback, and whole companies of prancing Shetland whole companie a good voice, is also on the bill. Next Monday Deiro, the celebrated accordeonist, will begin a three-day run at the Majestic.

The admirers of Alice Joyce, the popular screen star, will not want to miss her in her latest wish was the fact as well as a same. She is brought which appears at the Colonial Theater for the last times to-day. The story is of a young mother's, successful effort against crushing odds to retain her good name and keep her baby. Friday only, Viola Dana will be seen in "Riders of the Night," a romance and adventure of the Kentucky hills, how a weak woman outwits strong men and Kentucky womanhood is glorified.

MILL OWNER FINED

Gettysburg, Pa., June 6.—John C.
Nary, who operates a corn chopping and grinding mill not far from Orrtanna and sells flour not of his own manufacture, was fined $25 for violating the food regulation by selling wheat flour without substitutes. Mr. Nary says he did not intend to violate the law, but sold the flour with the understanding that the purchasers would return to get the substitute, and this they failed to do.

150 YOUTHS REPORT

Lewistown, Pa., June 6.—Military registration in Mifflin county of young men 21 years of age held at the courthouse here. About 150 registered, all men having reached the age of 21 since June 5, 1917. Among those who registered were Elimer and Clarence Stine, twin brothers of Maitland, who are engaged in farming. The first man to register was Russell Carter, colored. He has a brother in the service.

Hon. J. Frank Hanly

EX-GOVERNOR OF INDIANA

Subject: Patriotism and the Amendment. Shall Pennsylvania Be One of the Immortal Thirty-six, or One of the Dispicable Twelve?

A great theme, a great cause, and a great message from one who knows his subject and is able to present it with convincing power. No greater patriotic appeal will soon be made to the people of Harrisburg than this. Mr. Hanly is no stranger in Pennsylvania or in Harrisburg. There is no State in the Union in which his voice has not been raised in behalf of the cause to which he is giving his life and no State-wide fight in which he has not had high part. You can not afford to miss hearing him.
