CUMBERLAND VALLEY

K. of P. Anniversary

Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 6.—
Last evening Milita Lodge, No. 83, Knights of Pythias celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the organization with a splendid program and luncheon. Previous to the anniversary program, a short session of the Past Chancelors' Association was held for the election of officers and the endorsement of grand lodge officers. Representatives from the other five lodges in the county were guests, as follows: Fort Morris lodge, Shippensburg: Holly Gap, Mount Holly Springs: True Friends, Carlisle: Allen lodge, Churchtown, and Irene lodge, Shiremanstown.

Among the speakers were: W. L.
Gussman, of Mount Holly Springs;
Frank B. Sellers, of Carlisle; John Hoover, of Churchtown; J. G. Bentz, Shiremanstown; John T. Blair, Shippensburg, and Prof. A. B. Hess, representing the local organization, Music was furnished by Weber's orchestra- and a quartet consisting of the Rev. J. S. Adam, George C.
Dietz, George W. Hershman and Bruce Mowery. A wartime luncheon was served.

500 NEW REGISTRANTS 500 NEW REGISTRANTS
Carlisle, Pa., June 6.—Checking up to-day by draft board officials of the number of young men 21 years of age, since June 5, 1917, registered yesterday under the selective service law show that Cumberland county will have about half as many men registered as were originally in Class 1. The original enrollment in Class 1 was nearly 1,000 and there are close to 500 new registrants. A number of Carlisle men about to register enlisted early in the week in the Naval Reserves. A careful checkup of the lists will be made to see that all are included.

GRADUATES SECURE POSITIONS Waynesboro, Pa., June 6.—Five of the graduates from the Waynesboro High school this year have already secured government positions and will report for duty next Monday morning.

Waynesboro, Pa., June 6.—Mrs. William E. Bretzler has received a letter from her daughter, Miss Evelyn Bretzler, who is a Red Cross nurse in France, and she says she is enjoying the work very much. She reports good treatment and that the French people are the kindest she ever met.

LEFT FOR WASHINGTON
Waynesboro, Pa., June 6.—Representatives of the local labor unions and manufacturing companies left yesterday afternoon for Washington, in response to a call sent out by the National War Labor Board. The wage controversy will come up for argument in the morning.

argument in the morning.

JUSTIFIABLE HOLDUP
Gettysburg, Pa., June 6.—A sum of nearly one hundred dollars was realized by the women of the Red Cross Auxillary, of Littlestown, on Sunday, from the receipts of a toll-gate conducted at the edge of that town on the state highway to Gettysburg. Red Cross banners were strung across the road and as each automobile or vehicle passed they were brought to a standstill when the women would ask the occupants for a donation to the Red Cross.

DAVID SHANABROOK BURIED Blain, Par, June 6.—The funeral services of David S. Shanabrook were held to-day from the home of his nephew, E. Park Shanabrook, with burial in the Methodist Cemetery, the Rev. L. D. Wible officiating.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES
Liverpool, June 6.—The primary and junior departments of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold their annual Children's Day services on Sunday afternoon, June 16. George M. Deckard, Thomas Werick, the Rev. Clyde W. Shaffer, Miss Irene Coffman and Mrs. Annie Lenhart is the committee in charge of the drilling.

FERRY RATES INCREASED
Liverpool, June 6.—Radle and Hunter who have charge of the ferry at Crow's Landing, two miles below Liverpool, will increase their rates to twenty cents single trip on June 15.

SOLDIERS ARRIVE OVERSEAS
Millerstown, Pa., June 6.—Mr_and Mrs. P. R. Shenk have received word that their son, Robert, who sailed May 18, has arrived in France.
Mrs. Harry Wagner has received word that her husband, Corporal, Wagner, who sailed May 8, has arrived overseas.

HOUSE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING Lewistown, Pa., June 6.—During a heavy storm yesterday lightning struck the house occupied by Adam Miller and family in West Fourth street. It set fire to clothes in a wardrobe on the second floor. The family was not aware of lightning having struck the premises until some one of the family in going upstairs smelled the smoke. Water was quickly carried to the second floor and the fire was gotten out before much damage was done.

What Conservative Buying Does For Our Customers

Months before the recent heavy price advances imposed on furniture, we went to the furniture market and purchased Car-Load Lots of Furniture for later delivery. Some of this merchandise has been on order for a year, in the meanwhile advancing 50 per cent. The major portion of our present stock is composed of this merchandise, which represents the most excellent values in this city. Linked with our low expense system, you can depend upon it that this store is offering prices that CANNOT BE DUPLICATED ELSE-WHERE. These stocks are all too small, and will not last long. We, therefore, urge you to participate in these vast savings which are being offered "while they last."
