Young Williams was deeply in love with a young woman liv-ing near the scene of the attempted ing near the scene of the attempted self-destruction. After having procured a new suit of clothes he wanted her to marry him, but she rejected him and then he tried suicide. A son of George Hoffman chanced to go through the woods and heard a commotion on a tree. Looking up he saw the young man dangling there. Hurrying up the tree he released him and on his shoulder took him to the ground. Dr. Buehler, of Elizabethville, was sent for and he revived the nearly lifeless man and later took him to his home at Lykens.

Realizing Economy When You Have it

The woman or miss who wears our suits or skirts naturally should have blouses that go well with them.

I One might think hastily that it is necessary to have tables fairly littered with blouses of all sorts in order to have a wide choice. Such is not the case with those who desire blouses of unusual mode or ¶ Our Blouse Shop is a cozy corner plentifully stocked—but each blouse has been chosen with extreme care and good taste. It is so important to have the right blouse that we give this unique department utmost consideration.

Perhaps you have decided to secure one or more washable skirts for the hot weather. Then it is equally important that you select the right blouses to harmonize with them.

¶ Our Blouses at $1.95 to $9.90 offer excellent choice for completing one's attire at small cost. The detailed workmanship and fine grade of materials used in them are excellent proof that it is real economy to wear them.

A little while spent in our Blouse Shop will be of utmost interest to you, whether you purchase or not. You will at least see what is correct in Blouses.
