One of Harrisburg's Best Residential Locations Has Been Divided Into 181 Plots For Homes

2

One of the desirable farms of the McCormick estate fronting on the Susquehanna river, has been secured for residential purposes. This makes one of the finest pieces of land within the five-cent car limits available for homes to supply Harrisburg's rapidly-increasing population.

Located north of Wormleysburg, directly opposite the State Capitol Building, and with 1,800 feet along river front dedicated to city for river park, River View is among the best residential districts available at a moderate price. Plans have been approved by the Planning Commission of Harrisburg. Fifty reservations have been applied for since the news became public.

River View has five-cent car fare and all-night service-gas, water and electric. Offers a view of the Susquehanna, and the proximity for boating and bathing. A panoramic scene of Harrisburg, its Front Steps, bridges, and the mountain gap. What more could you wish for a home?

Lots as low as $10.50 per foot—and no higher than $26.77. You may choose as little as forty feet front by 175 feet deep, without any building restrictions except as to distance from front and rear. Your neighbors will be from the Caucasion race only. Come over to-morrow. It looks better than we can picture it here.

DOWN $10.00 Secures Any Plot On Second or Third St. $10.00 A Month Gradually Pays The Balance No interest. * No taxes for two years, on time contracts. Liberal discount for larger down payments and for cash. Sales to Caucasian Race only.
