Galahad vs. Hick-A-Thrift.

Hick-A-Thrift tossers repeated their trick of several days ago, again rimming the Rosewood aggregation and pulling the latter team out of irst place in the Allison Hill League.

first place in the Allison Hill League. Score, S to 7.

The Pine Street aggregation came from behind and by a strong spurt at the finish managed to win by a one-run margin. Victory came to the winners through timely hitting. Each member of the team secured at least one bingle, seven of which were for extra bases. Added to the fine batting was the clever pitching of Goodiel. While his regular position is back of the bat, he had nine strikeouts to his credit, and held the Rosewood team to eight scattered osewood team to eight scattered

To-night the Hickles will ackle the Galahads, and, if the Pine street team can repeat the trick, they will again tumble the team at the op of the ladder. Shay will likely pipose Stricker. As both are crack cossers, a good game should result, in their first meet Shay won out in a to 0 duel. Just half a game separates first and third places. The scores and lineup: ore and lineup:

West End to Collide With Enola Y.M.C.A.Saturday

The West End A. C. will feet the Enola Y. M. C. A. Saturday on the West End field, Fourth and Seneca streets. Rivalry between these two clubs is keen, as Earl Walz, the West End pitcher, was a member of the trimmed West End by a lopsided

The West Enders are a greatly improved club since the opening game proved club since the opening game and with the team work getting smoother each game it will take some speed demons to trim them. West End is out after the championship of the city again.

There has been some trouble in securing a good umpire, but the management hopes to have a first-class man for Saturday.

NEWCOMB OF PHILADELPHIA IS NOW TRAPSHOOTING CHAMPION

H. Newcomb, the independent gun club star of Philadelphia, added more honors to his remarkable shooting career by winning the Interstate Association amateur championship of Pennsylvania at the state tournament this afternoon. The shooting grounds, swept by a treacherous wind that tossed the targets about like straw, made Newcomb's performance of 97 breaks in 100 the more meritorious when it is noted that Roy McIntyre, last year's champion, with one hundred straight broke only 93 and Allen Heil, the 1916 champion, also with 100 straight, broke only 92. Newcomb now has the opportunity of being the winner of the national championship a second time, a feat heretofore not accomplished.

In the morning event at seventy targets, H. A. Morson, 166; Fred Tomlin, 165.

Class O—D. H. Strohm, 150; M. P. Howland, 149; J. S. Love, 149.

The ties, which will be for place only, will be decided in the first events in the morning. The three-man team race was won by the No. Newcomb.
