City to Protect Children on the Playgrounds From Attacks by Rowdies

Because of the reports from a number of playground instructors that older boys in the neighborhood are annoying the smaller youngsters while at play, throwing stones and creating other disturbances, Supervisor J. K. Staples has issued a warning that the youths must stay off the grounds or maintain order and that if necessary prosecutions will be brought against the offenders.

A number of them have already been reported, giving names and addresses, and some have been personally notified that annoyance of the boys and girls enjoying the play apparatus will not be tolerated.

Supplies for the various grounds were distributed to-day. At a number of the plots materials which were in use have already been furnished to the boys and girls.

Notified will be sent to the instructors giving the schedules of folk dancing classes and the time and place for the weekly meetings.
