BELSINGER'S OPTICIAN CLUB. Pay while You wear them. Belsinger 212 Locust St.

Do You Realize What Your Eyes are Worth?

You will never really know how much they are worth until you see the truth about their condition. So much affected as to be very troublesome.

If you have any trouble with your eyes now—no matter how slight the ailment might be—it is your duty to have them attended to at once.

A small trouble can be corrected easily and quickly. And the expense will be very little. Later on it will be more difficult to correct and likely cause unnecessary expense.

Suppose you do not have the full amount for glasses now. It is not necessary, since we have started the BELSINGER OPTICAL CLUB.

We have started our club in order that you might have the glasses you need now and you can be paying for them while your eyes are receiving help. Isn't that better than letting your eyes get worse and worse?

Come in to-day and let us examine your eyes. We'll tell you the truth about their condition. Our reputation depends upon that.
