

Singing to Mark Great Fourth of July Parade

Foreign-Born Marching Committee Will Meet Tonight to Make Plans For Big Demonstration

The great parade to be held on July Fourth will be a singing parade, it was decided today at a meeting of the singing committee held in the office of John Fox Weiss. Virtually all choirs and musical organizations of the city will be massed to lead the singing. The entire host of marchers will join in the immense community singing affair under the leadership of a prominent chorister.

The choirs will march as a single unit, singing patriotic, popular and familiar songs. They will march at the P. R. Y. M. C. A. and will join in the marching. Officials say that this will be the most impressive feature of the entire parade. Women will be dressed in white. Printed song pamphlets containing the words of the songs to be used will be supplied to the singers.

Many to Join

Invitations will be sent to organizations and societies to join with the singing. Mr. Weiss, chairman of the committee, requested that instead of waiting for the invitations, officials of the organizations communicate with him at once. His telephone numbers are Bell 419. Consideration will be given to all requests that word be sent him by Monday noon, as to the number of marchers from each organization.

A meeting of the foreign-born marchers will be held to-night at 8 o'clock in the City Council Chambers with Edward Moeslein as chairman. The stunt committee will meet tomorrow noon at the Harrisburg Club. The parade and societies and organizations committees will hold a joint meeting in the Mayor's office tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The financial committee will also meet to-morrow at the Harrisburg Club. It is important that all organizations, clubs and societies marching get together with C. O. Backenstos or W. R. Jackson, chairman of the societies and organizations or the industries committees, advising how many marchers will be sent.

Women will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Civic Clubhouse to complete their arrangements for the affair.

Harrisburg's patriotic celebration on July 4 is to be held as one of the numerous celebrations throughout the United States in answer to President Wilson's proclamation, which was issued at the request of representatives of twenty-two nationalities. The underlying purpose of all these celebrations is to unite the 142nd anniversary of Independence Day into a closer brotherhood native-born citizens, foreign-born citizens and aliens.

The petition for a proclamation for such a celebration was issued by representatives from forty-six societies including twenty-two nationalities on May 21. Included among the nationalities that united in this plea were:

Armenians, Assyrians, Belgians, Chinese, Czech-Slavs, Danes, Dutch, Finns, French, French-Canadians, Germans, Greeks, Hungarians, Italians, Japanese, Lithuanians, Poles, Portuguese, Rumanians, South Slavs, Swedes and Swiss.

In addition to the improved war aspect, there are sound economic reasons at home why stocks should be purchased. To begin with we are in days of inflation in our monetary system whereas the supplies of stocks have not been increasing. We further have between twenty to twenty-five millions of people in this country who have been introduced to Wall Street through the finest kind of investment—the Liberty Bonds.

The first three Liberty Bonds have already totaled in excess of $12,000,000,000, and as these Liberty Bonds are practically the same as money in market conditions, it is reasonable to presume that present market prices for reasonable securities are about as low as they can be expected to go. It would seem advisable, then, that non-dividend paying active securities should be put to work to pay their way. The service of Howard A. Riley & Company, includes a department in which suggestions along these lines will be worked out. Our weekly Market Digest covers the above, as well as latest market information on the active stocks, copies free on request.

BRITISH PREMIER AFFECTS MARKET

Setback Caused by Lloyd George's Statement Largely Overcome at Noon—Moderate Reaction on United States Steel.

By Associated Press

New York, June 25.—Wall Street.—Stocks opened with a firm tone today under guidance of the usual leaders including coppers and motors but soon reacted as a result of pressure against U. S. Steel, Baldwin Locomotive and related industrials and equipments. Brooklyn Transit was weakest of the utilities. The movement in rails was again very narrow and irregular.

The early setback attributed to selling based upon the British premier's statement, was soon largely overcome. Another moderate reaction set in at midday on renewed offerings of such leaders as U. S. Steel and Reading. Liberty 3 1/2 sold at 99.50 to 99.60; first 4s at 94.00; second 4s at 93.96 to 94.02 and 4 1/2s at 95.96 to 96.00.

"KILL IT OVER HERE"

By Gabriel H. Moyer

Head of Patriotic Order Sons of America Favors Crushing of All Philology in German Books and Publications

"Much is said in these war days about the morale of the people 'back home.' What are they doing to help win this war? The biggest part of them is doing all within their power, but a considerable portion is hanging back. How to strengthen the morale and inspire men and women to back up this war against Prussianism is a task really worth while.

"In my judgment, the most effective way is to eliminate everything in our national life that smacks of Prussianism. 'Kill it over here' should be the slogan of the American people.

"As state president of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, I recognized long ago the importance of ridding ourselves of German books and German publications in this country, and when Senator Young, of Iowa, gave out the startling statement that in more than one thousand schools in the northwest German was being taught exclusively, I became convinced that the Hun should be driven out of the schools of Pennsylvania, and sought the co-operation of Dr. N. C. Schaefer, Superintendent of Public Instruction. However, he was not ready to co-operate with me. Then began an aggressive campaign, pushed forward by the eight hundred and seventy-six camps of our order in this state, until to-day boards of education everywhere throughout the Commonwealth have taken favorable action; and we purpose keeping up the fight, not only against German education and German publications in this country, but also against the German menace and influence in the press, which has been a most dangerous menace and should be wiped out. If we have histories of Germany, containing the pictures of Von Moltke, Prince Bismarck and the Kaiser, with sketches

CUT BY GLASS

R. L. Sellers was cut by flying glass when a hulk Harrisburg Light and Power Company motor truck filled with coal backed into the Reservoir trolley car he was driving. The truck was going out Market street ahead of the trolley and turned into Ninth. As it turned into Ninth a machine turning it back into the trolley car. The truck tilted and spilled part of the coal. Sellers was the only person injured.

TAKES NEW NAME

Philadelphia, June 25.—The Committee of Public Safety yesterday changed its name and will hereafter be known as the "Pennsylvania Council of National Defense and Committee of Public Safety." The change was made in deference to the wishes of officials of the Council of National Defense, Washington, and also in response to the suggestion of a large number of the county units of the committee.

THE DANCEY IS LAUNCHED

Jacksonville, Fla., June 25.—The Dancey, the first wooden steamer to be built here under government contract, was launched yesterday from the ways of the J. J. Murdock Shipbuilding Company. Within ten minutes the keel of another vessel was laid. The Dancey is 304 feet in length and is expected to develop a speed of fourteen knots an hour.

WATCHMAN BLAMED FOR FATAL CRASH

Responsibility for the death of Roy Welborn, a truck driver, who was killed June 15 when crossing the Pennsylvania railroad crossing at Jednota, was placed on the watchman at the crossing, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury, which declared that "according to evidence submitted the watchman was asleep at his post of duty." Frank Still, the watchman, who was seriously injured in the crash, was discharged from the hospital yesterday.

Men who served on the coroner's jury were: Guy H. Behman, Daniel C. Derlin, George G. Clemm, C. W. Thompson, A. H. Stains and W. H. Wise. The witnesses of the inquest were: George W. Terry, A. W. Shope, Thomas Clarke, C. C. Siger, Frank Walford, Bruce Hoffman, F. S. Keller, Mike Uhler, A. A. Sloverns, H. George Hess, Boyd Manbeck, Frank Still, Samuel Nucky, Harry Bousier and Dr. L. W. ## ECLIPSE OF MOON

Last night persons interested in the heavenly bodies were given a chance to witness a partial eclipse of the moon. The eclipse was generally visible in the west part of North and South America, throughout the Pacific ocean and Australia. The eclipse was only partial, as the shadow of the earth covers a very small portion of the moon.
