MILITARY BRIDAL ACROSS RIVER

Miss Roberta Reiff and Sergt. G. Reed Gracey Marry in New Cumberland

Another of the interesting military weddings so frequent now-a-days, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Hursh Reiff, New Cumberland.

The bride was their daughter, Miss Roberta Reiff, who was united in marriage with Sergeant George Reed Gracey, by the Rev. Dr. John C. Harp, president of Blair Academy, Blairtown, N. J., and uncle of the bridegroom.

American flags and roses made beautiful decorations and the service was performed before an altar of roses and tall candles. The wedding marches were played by Miss Harpe, of Cincinnati, and during the ceremony, Miss Rue sang softly "O Promise Me."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a charming rock of white organdy and Irish lace and carried a shower of trench flowers and roses. Miss Rachel Woodburn Gracey, the maid of honor, wore white Georgette crepe with gold embroideries and carried an arm bunch of roses. Robert Vincent Reiff was best man.

A wedding supper was served to thirty people by Rutherford of this city. The bride and groom are spending the honeymoon at Eastern resorts and within ten days he will return overseas.

The bride is a graduate of Dickinson College, where she received her degrees of Bachelor and Master of Arts. She is a member of Phi Omega Fraternity and most gifted girl. Sergeant Gracey, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Irvine Gracey, of New Cumberland and before entering the service was connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

YOUNG MUSICIANS GIVE RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Appell's Piano-forte School Please Large Audience Last Night

The foundation of Harrisburg's present-day musical kingdom has been laid by the Wednesday Club and Fred C. Hand with his series of the city's appeal weeks. It is up to the city's musicians to make this kingdom larger and better. That the city's musicians are hand-in-hand with the project is evidenced last night when a large audience heard young musicians from the Piano-forte school of Miss Laura Appell, demonstrate their musical powers. The graduation and presentation of a diploma to Miss Marietta Sultzberger was the feature of the evening.

Louise Cook, Gretchen Deem, Sara Hamer and Mildred Wickersham, played "The Star Spangled Banner," the opening number in the concert. The same artists rendered Krentzlin's "Polonaise" as a following selection. "Frankie's The Mill," was played by Blanche Tausig, followed by Jean-Julian DeGray, Richard DeGray, Elizabeth Hubley, Jerma, Evelyn, John and Henry Spicer, Erma, Edna and Edgar Fox, Elizabeth and Catherine Montgomery.

Miss Marietta Sultzberger and Miss Anna Young played the second part of the program, playing Lack's "Finale Valse." Louis Cook, playing "Molly's" "Napolitana Saltarello," and Lilla Bonney, playing "Waltz of the Flower Girls," were following numbers. Owing to the illness of Miss Katherine Dechant, Miss Appell played in place of her, Krentzlin's "Octurne," and Concone's "Witches Dance." The two numbers are in wide contrast. The first is a sleepy, dreamy composition, bringing the mind to wandering thoughts of the canals of Venice on a moonlight night. "The Witches Dance" is a wild fury of playing, requiring great skill in its performance.

The allegro, allegretto and presto movements of Beethoven's Sonata Opus 10, No. 2, were played magnificently by Miss Millie Cohen. Miss Marietta Sultzberger, the graduate, played the closing numbers of the musical program. Her first number was Chopin's beautiful and ever-popular "Valse Op. 34, No. 1." The second was the impassioned professional, "The Allegro Movement from the 'Carnival Scenes,'" by Schumann. The number can almost be styled an oddity. It is a pompous, yet passionate processional march. In the composition, the French national anthem is found in concealed form. Hatred already existed between Germany and France at the time Schumann wrote the number and it was a standing joke of his that no policeman could detect the strains of "The Marseillaise" appearing in the composition.

Miss Sultzberger played beautifully and responded to a call for an encore. She was presented with the diploma of graduation by Miss Appell, who predicted for the young pianist future of boundless possibilities. The graduate has technique, power of expression and a charming appearance which bid fair to make her name long-lived on the pages of musical history in the coming generation.

Miss Ruth Hunter of Rochester, N. Y., has returned home after spending several weeks with Miss Nellie McCoy, Long street, Camp Hill. While here Miss Hunter and Miss McCoy visited the latter's brother, Jesse McCoy, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Ernst, and children, Edgar and Ruth, of 10 North Fifteenth street, are home after a visit with relatives in Reading.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Brewer and son, Clifford, of Elida, Ohio, and Mrs. Arthur Wagoner and son, Kenneth, of Berks street, motored to Shippensburg the other day for a visit with friends.

War Numbers Will Be Drawn on Friday For Youth of the Nation

Washington, June 25.—Friday of this week has been fixed by the War Department for the drawing of numbers to establish the draft order of nearly 8,000,000 young men who are registered for military service on June 5.

The drawing will be held at the Senate office building where the great lottery was conducted last year. It will begin at 9 a. m. and according to the plan, should be completed before noon. It is estimated that the longest roll of new registrants hardly will exceed 1,000, so 1,200 capsules will be prepared, as compared with 10,500 on the first occasion.
