REAGAN-GAFFNEY WEDDING TODAY

Popular Steelton Couple Are Married in St. James' Catholic Church

MRS. WILLIAM J. REAGAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the St. James' Catholic Church, Front and Conestoga streets, this morning at 8 o'clock, when William J. Reagan, 619 North Third street, and Miss Margaret R. Gaffney, 114 North Second street, were married by the Rev. William Huygen, pastor of St. John's German Catholic Church.

The bride was attired in an attractive georgette crepe gown with hat to match and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Helen Gaffney, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a pink crepe gown with hat to match. Philip Dwyler was best man. Several hymns were sung by the choir and Frank Wiegner played a few selections on the violin during the wedding.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Reagan are widely known in the borough, having graduated from the Steelton High School and taken a prominent part in social activities. The bride has been a teacher in the public schools of the borough for some time and resigned her position after the term last year. The bridegroom is employed in the engineering department at the local steel plant and is a brother of Lieutenant Patrick Reagan, the prominent athlete.

Reagan is a sister of Miss Honora Gaffney, who was recently elected assistant secretary of the borough.

Immediately after the ceremony the newly-married couple left on a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City and will be at home after July 15 at 152 South Second street.
