CLARKE'S WALLOP BEATS ROSEWOOD

Sensational Hill Game With Many Stunts Goes to the Hungry Hick-A-Thrifts

ALLISON HILL LEAGUE. Last Night's Result: Hick-A-Thrift, 4; Rosewood, 1. Standing of the Clubs: Reading, 9 4 692; Rosewood, 6 5 545; Galahad, 7 6 538; Hick-A-Thrift, 4 11 267.

"Bobby" Clarke's home run wallop in the third inning with two lads on base gave the Hick-A-Thrift team of the Allison Hill league a victory over the Rosewood terrors last evening by a score of 4 to 1. His drive was a feature of the contest, coming as it did at the psycho moment.

The fray was one of the best of the season, chuck full of thrilling plays. To enumerate them would be to mention nearly every player. In the first inning, "Bill" Fortna struck out three "Hickie" batters. Hinkle stopped a hard hit ball by Garverich, stepped over and touched second and doubled the runner at first. "Soups" Campbell made one of the most brilliant throws seen on the Seventeenth street diamond and threw out the runner at first. Waltz was also credited with a one handed catch of a line drive. To cap the climax came the home run wallop.

"Babe" Alcorn made his initial appearance with the winning aggression and tossed a good game. He kept the hits well scattered, and not a Rosewood player threatened the plate until the final inning. "Bill" Fortna fanned seven batters and allowed only four hits. But for the four base lick from Clarke's bat, "Bill" would have had a great chance to win the game.

The Hick-A-Thrift nine scored in the second when Clarke had a pass. Campbell put down a neat punt, and when Fortna threw wild to second "Bobby" chased home with the first score. In the third, Minnick drove out his second single through shortstop. "Bill" Hoerner was hit by the pitcher. On the error Minnick took third and Hoerner stole second. Then came the deciding blow.

The Cheapest Sport Under the Sun Is Kaiser Bill the Hated Hun

Sporting writers throughout this country, Canada, and even Mexico, have been concentrating their comment recently upon the German Emperor who is universally judged to be the "cheapest sport that ever lived." His crime has been pretty well advertised, but it was so flagrant that the details should be emphasized. Be it known, then, that this swinehead butted into the international yacht racing sport in 1905, offering a $5,000 "gold" cup as trophy, the same being won by William Marshall, flying the colors of the New York Yacht Club. Up to that time this international race was the greatest single sporting event in the world. Thousands came from all parts to witness a race for the small sum of 25 cents, so that rich and poor were patrons. It was the only opportunity afforded many inquisitive folks to personally toy with genuine schismatics. It made a hero of Sir Thomas Lipton who gamely kept after the championship, defeat after defeat. It was always conducted with strictest rules of fair sport. A short time ago Marshall's son was killed in France flying an airplane and the patriotic father offered the $5,000 "gold" cup to be auctioned for the Red Cross and it brought $125,000. The subsequent events have been treated half whimsically by the genial American press, but underneath is a savage sentiment.

Ye good men of the Allies, with sporting hearts and true, We beg you heed this message, soon to start the cry and hue For low-life Kaiser Wilhelm that Hohenzollern pup. Who lately did palm off on us a pewter "all-gold" cup. Cathedral wrecker, baby-stabber, goldbrick man, deadbeat— He must have stirred the ashes of our friend Grand Central Pete! He swore five thousand dollars marked the value of his junk, And hoaxed the Yankee yachtsmen who gormandized his bunk.

And now we find six bones the price, with thirty added to it. The cup, forsooth, it teems with germs, sauerkraut and Prussian snot. The joke on Bill, however, is—historic loss and loss: That far more than he stole from sport, he gave to our Red Cross.

The craven, slimy, four-flush boob shows folk more and more That Hohenzollern kindred stand without the fair-play door. We beg you heed this message, soon to start the cry and hue For low-life Kaiser Wilhelm that Hohenzollern pup. What pure gold's found in Wilhelm won't make much show in Hell. ALLEN SANGREE.

Tankers Want Saturday Game With City Team

Here is a chance for some lively Harrisburg ball team to hook up on this Saturday with the husky players of the 22nd Battalion, Tank Corps, stationed at Camp Colt, who have trimmed everything there and are now looking for more worlds to conquer. Also to raise money for the athletic and overseas fund. Lieutenant Logsdon, battalion athletic director, writes: "Our team would very much like to play some fast club in Harrisburg and show the followers of the pastime there what the Tankers can do. We feel that the people of Harrisburg are very friendly to our team, and we are sure that they will give us help in staging our Memorial Track and Field Meet, and we should like to stage an entertaining game there. Could the Telegraph sporting editor arrange through his columns a game for us in Harrisburg next Saturday, June 29? Some fast team that would afford a good exhibition and drawing card, of course, is desirable. As for the monetary part of it, we are not well versed. As has been said, the team is playing for the battalion athletic and overseas fund. We can't now put up a purse, if that is permissible, but perhaps the Harrisburg team can be induced to accept this meek challenge."

Head of National Security League Is in Trouble

A special meeting of the City Grays will be held in the Army, Second and Foster streets, to-morrow night, and an interesting program has been announced for the occasion. Several presentations will be made by Captain John Bretz and Captain Paul Harm. Of the Pennsylvania Reserve Militia, will speak. A short drill by members of the Reserve Militia will follow. There will be community singing and dancing. Friends and members of the City Grays, as well as members of Company 1, Pennsylvania Reserve Militia, are invited to attend. Captain E. Laubenstein, in charge. A special feature, the nature of which has not been divulged, is anticipated with great interest by the members. First Draft Class Nearly Exhausted in Cumberland. Carlisle, Pa., June 26.—If many more calls are made upon Cumberland county similar to that of June 24, when seventy-four men left for Camp Lee, the number in Class 1 will be exhausted according to members of the local boards. Questionnaires will be sent to the newly-registered men within a short time and they will be classified early in July. There were originally about 700 men in Class 1, but many have enlisted or have been inducted into various branches of the service. Use McNeil's Cold Tablets.—Adv.

S. STANWOOD MENKEN. The endorsement of William R. Hearst and his newspaper by S. Stanwood Menken, president of the National Security League, after speakers had attacked Mr. Hearst all over the country, has brought about a crisis in the affairs of the organization, and the question has been raised if he should resign.

TELEGRAPH WINS FROM BELMONT

Victory Goes to the Printers After a Close and Interesting Game

The newspaper aggregation defeated the Belmont Athletic Club on the Island Park diamond last evening, thus bringing the winning streak of the Belmont club to an end. The game was played very tight, with the exceptions of the last two innings, both teams displaying quick and alert action. The most important factors of this game were the gracious-to-goodness lack of efficiency on the part of the umpire and the rough-house tactics displayed by some of the players. The next scalp the Newsies are going after will be the Union Station team of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The box score follows: TELEGRAPH: Smith, cf., 1 0 0 0 0 0; F. AMERICAN ATHLETES ARE MAKING A GREAT REPUTATION IN EUROPE. York has its share, and just was until Clarence Beck, our town hero, gets loose among the Huns. A letter to Ashmer Owens, 336 South Queen street, former manager of the Moose team from William H. Montford, known to his York friends as "Billy" who is with the ice plant unit, tells the story. Beck, also known as "Shorty" Laucks, Yorkers, also carried his passport and is all ready to leave for France. The date of his sailing was withheld by the authorities.

WOULD ABOLISH JURY TRIALS DURING STRIFE, BOSTON TELLS LAWYERS

Bedford Springs, Pa., June 26.—In a scathing arraignment of the lack of uniformity of state laws, the tendency to slavishly follow ancient errors in submitting to judicial decisions and the construction of laws under conditions that have entirely passed away, Charles A. Boston, a nationally prominent attorney of New York city, and honorary member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, started some of the members more inclined towards orthodoxy.

NEGRO HELD AS MAN WHO CARTED OFF FURNITURE

Dan Nelson, a negro, was arrested in Sibletown by Patrolman Dickey yesterday afternoon on the charge of breaking into the warehouse of H. Handler, furniture dealer, in James street, and loading Handler's truck with a large quantity of household furniture which he later unloaded into an empty house in North Cameron street and abandoned the truck. Nelson claimed that he was met at Seventh and Herr streets by a white man who engineered the theft. Police believe that no other man was implicated and Nelson will be given a hearing to-day. The stolen goods were located by Detective Speese.

TO CUT OFF COAL SUPPLY WHERE LANDLORD GOUGES

Gouging landlords will receive small sympathy from the local fuel administration next winter, according to a message received from the state fuel administration last night and made public to-day. The message is to the effect that where a landlord forces a tenant out of his house in order that a higher rent can be secured from another tenant, the local fuel administration is to cut off the supply of coal to that house. This action on the part of the fuel administration is thought to be the most effective means of breaking up the practice of some landlords of forcing tenants out of their houses at short notice. REACHES FRANCE QUICKLY. Ten days after he arrived at Camp Lee Va., with a contingent of selected men he was on his way to France in a record made by George A. Craig, 234 Muench street. According to a letter received by relatives, Craig is now safe over seas. He is a member of the 36th Trench Mortar.

LEONARD BESTS JACK BRITTON

In the Preliminary Sammy Schiff of Harrisburg Makes His Opponent Quit

"Benny" Leonard, lightweight champion, bested "Jack" Britton, one of the foremost welterweights of the country, at Shibe Park last night, before a crowd of 8,000 spectators, who cheered loudly at every exchange of punches. Leonard won, but Britton was far from being badly defeated. Both men showed wonderful cleverness and ring generalship, which made the fight a pretty one to witness. Leonard won mostly because of the power behind his punches. He landed no oftener than did Britton, but when Benny planted his gloves to the body or face they carried the sting with them. Leonard was the aggressor during most of the fight, but Britton was dangerous at all times, scoring often with a left chop that shook up Leonard when it landed. The champion was on top of Britton nearly all the time. Twice he staggered his opponent with high-hand punches. In the final round Leonard tried hard for

AROUND THE BASES

"Roxey" Roach recently signed up to play short-stop for Steelton, left Louisville with the extraordinary record of playing continuously from August 14, 1914, when an umpire chased him off the field, until June 14, 1917. In that period he did not miss an inning or a time at bat; 546 games in all. In his last week at Louisville he sprang a "Charley" hit, because that he is lumbering up nicely now an expects to do the star work of his career for Steelton.

Pittsburgh is greatly agitated over the action of District Attorney Rowland in ordering all Sunday games, professional and otherwise, whether admission is charged or not, stopped on Sundays in Allegheny county hereafter. An ordinance to permit Sunday games in the city of Pittsburgh is pending in the city council and it is charged that the district attorney's order is intended to discourage the aldermen from passing the measure, which has been approved by a big majority of persons canvassed for opinions.

John K. Tenor, president of the National League, announces that he will protest against the proposed classification of baseball as a non-essential industry under General Crowder's work order, on the ground that baseball is one of the necessities of the nation for keeping up its morale during the period of the world war.

MAY CARE HERE FOR INMATES OF OLD ALMSHOUSE

Tentative proposals are expected in Harrisburg either to-day or to-morrow by the federal Dauphin County Poor Board and of the Pennsylvania State Lunatic Hospital to care for some of the inmates of the county almshouse. These proposals are expected as a result of the State Fire Marshal's Department report on the fire at the almshouse here last night before the Pennsylvania Bar Association, started some of the members more inclined towards orthodoxy.

BIGGEST CROP OF TAXES FROM PROFITS IS PAID

Washington, June 26.—The biggest harvest of taxes ever gathered by the federal government was finished last night with the expiration of the time for paying excess profits and income assessments without added penalties for delinquency. Estimates placed the sum collected from these sources at $2,775,000,000, and exact figures probably will be known next week. Tuesday, almost a half-billion came in yesterday from corporations and other taxpayers who postponed payment as long as possible. Payments not made yesterday are subject to penalties of 5 per cent with one per cent a month interest. Hundreds of small business and professional men and other individuals failed to return to make payments, however, and against these an intensive campaign will be waged, starting in two or three weeks. They will be required to make belated reports of incomes, and to pay heavy penalties to avoid prosecution as tax dodgers. The Internal Revenue Bureau, with its ramifications in 84 collection districts and its methods of gathering accurate information on incomes, already has prepared a quantity of stationery to serve as proof of the intention of many citizens and business firms to dodge tax liabilities.
