RETIRE SUNDAY

Expert Cabinet Worker Hails From Cumberland Valley; Is Known Here

One of four veterans of the Pennsy who will retire from service on July 1 is George Washington Cramer, a cabinetmaker. He is a former resident of Middle Spring, Cumberland county, near Shippensburg. Mr. Cramer is a frequent visitor here, here he has relatives. He is an expert craftsman in inlaid work. Mr. Cramer worked in the Pennsy shops at Altoona for thirty-six years. He was born May 13, 1850. He entered the Pennsy service on February 13, 1880, at Altoona in the glueroom of the cabinet shop under Fore-room of the cabinet shop under Foreman John Burley. He remained in this department up until it was moved to No. 1 planing mill two years ago.

In Poor Health

During February of this year Mr. Cramer was taken ill with pneumonia and, owing to ill health, has been compelled to relinquish his duties. The veteran is an expert craftsman on inlaid woodwork, he having formerly done most of the finer work on the wooden-style passenger cars put out by the Pennsy. Mr. Cramer has at his home many specimens of his handlwork in the form of boxes, stands, bookcases and other articles. One box contains between 20,000 and 25,000 separate pieces of different colored wood, some fifteen kinds of natural wood being used in the construction of the box.

The veteran was twice injured while in the employ of the Pennsy. In 1882 he had his left wrist badly cut with a chisel and in 1913 his right hand and fingers were crippled when the members were caught in a woodshaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer are planning

shaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer are planning to make their future home in Tyrone.

Other shopmen who will retire are:
John B. Keller, William K. Hetrick
and William H. Stewart.

Credit University is to Be Organized After War

Chicago.—Plans have been out-lined for a national university of Credit Men's convention at the Hotel National Institute of Credit, at the session of the National Association of session of the National Association of Credit Men's convention at the Totel La Salle. It will be patterned after the American Institution of Banking La Salle. It will be patterned after the American Institution of Banking and degreees will be conferred as by universities upon the completion of a regular curriculum.

The project is an outgrowth of the war and is a step forward in line with preparations business is making to meet world-wide competition following the declaration of peace. The preliminary course has been worked out by an advisory committee, consisting of Dr. J. T. Holdsworth, dean of the School of Economics, University of Pittsburgh; Dr. C. W. Gerstenberg, director of the department of finance, New York University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, and Dr. W. L. Lord, dean of the School of Business Administration, Boston University.

MANSIONS SOLD

The sale of one of Harrisburg's landmarks, the Etter mansion, 907 North Front street, was completed yesterday by Mrs. Sarah M. Etter to Arthur F. Nelson, departmental superintendent of the Steelton plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company, for a consideration said to have been $24,000. Nelson sold his present home, the old Hildrup mansion, Nineteenth and Nelson streets, to Al K. Thomas, cashier of the East End Bank, for a sum estimated to have been $30,000.
