Manager George Cockill displayed an almost entirely new lineup yesterday as predicted in this column some time ago.

Tom Phillips looked mighty good, the husky Williamsport lads not being able to make a run off his delivery in the five innings he worked.

Athlete Rejected Eight Times Is Now in Draft

Eight times rejected for service with the Army and Navy or Marines—all because a fighting tackle on the football team of Syracuse University back in 1911 kicked his heart out of place—Arthur Zachritz, 27 years old, athlete and attorney, has been drafted.

Some athlete! That's what they used to say about him. And the draft board decided that "some athlete" ought to make "some soldier"—even if he had a heart where it oughtn't to be and had been rejected eight times because of it.
