BOLSHEVIKISM IS FAST LOSING ITS GRIP ON SIBERIA

Last Grasp Strengthened by Prisoners; Described as "Living Corpse"

Loudon, June 28.—That the Bol-sheviki in Siberia are weak and could be overthrown easily but for the sup-port of armed prisoners released by them is the contention of the Harbin correspondent of the Daily Mail. In a dispatch dated June 23, he says that of 20,000 prisoners fighting on the side of the Bolsheviki in Trans-Baikalia, 4,000 åre Magyars, who are the chief source of Bolshevik strength. London, June 28 .- That the Bol-

Two or three allied divisions, says the correspondent, could put down all opposition in Siberia. He adds:

Bolshevik Wcakness Apparent

"The weakness of the Bolsheviki may be imagined from the fact that a few scattered Czecho-Słovak forces are able to hold the Siberian railway from Tcheliabinsk to Nij-Udinsk, a distance of 1,500 miles, and keep in touch with the counter-revolutionary movement in southeastern Russia led by General Alexieff.

"The weakness of the Bolsheviki may be imagined from the fact that a few scattered Czecho-Slovak forces are able to hold the Siberian railway from Tcheliabinsk to Nij-Udinsk, a distance of 1,500 miles, and keep in touch with the counter-revolutionary movement in southeastern Russia led by General Alexieff. "Bolshevikism is a living corpse. Allied intervention is not only to save the Russians from the Germans, but save the Russians from the Germans but save the Russians from the general sources."

The correspondent then gives information concerning conditions in leading Siberian towns. He says there are 40,000 unarmed Austrian prisoners at Omsk, where a German consul has just arrived. The consul has received 250,000 rubles from the local Bolshevik government as an indemnity for the liquidation of German business, while representatives of British and American firms are being mulcted heavily under threat of imprisonment.
