CURRIE-YOUNG WEDDING TODAY

Young People Quietly Married in the St. Matthew's Parish House, Washington, D. C.

A pretty June wedding was that of Miss Anne Carolyn Young, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, 338 Chestnut street, and Richard Francis Currie, son of Mrs. M. E. Currie, of Philadelphia, which took place this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, at the Parish House of Saint Matthew's Roman Catholic Church, Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D. C.

The bride wore a smart suit of navy blue with French turban to match, and a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Currie are spending their honeymoon at eastern resorts.

CLUB MEMBERS HAVE BUSY DAY

Golf Tourneys and Dinners Are Enjoyed at the Country Clubs

Despite the threatening weather of to-day the members of the country clubs enjoyed the pleasant recreation of golf and the informal tea and dinner dances.

The Harrisburg Country Club members played an interesting golf tourney on their course this afternoon. Tea was served to the players and the members of the club. This evening there will be several informal dinner parties among which are those of Mrs. Francis Jordan Hall and Mrs. Philip T. Meredith. The Braxton orchestra will furnish music for the informal dance following.

ASSISTING IN RED CROSS CARNIVAL AT LEMOYNE

RUTH SUTTON, ELMIRA BRICKER, MILDRED WITMAN, ANNA BAKER

These attractive girls are but a few of the many Lemoyne beauties who will assist in the Red Cross carnival and street bazar to be held in the 'cross river town this evening for the benefit of the auxiliary at that place.

A bevy of pretty High school girls have volunteered to assist officers of the Lemoyne auxiliary in the bazar which promises to be one of the biggest community affairs held in the town in recent years.

All Lemoyne will be in gala attire for the big event. Homes were decorated to-day with the national colors and residents are showing their interest by taking an active part in arrangements by contributing, soliciting and donating. They are asked to do. Since arrangements for the big affair were first started a warm 'get-together' feeling among residents has been evident.

A parade of Red Cross workers, members of the Junior organization and Boy Scouts, among others, will precede the street bazar. The parade will move promptly at 7 o'clock. Following the procession a short concert will be given by the Common-
