Christian Endeavor Rally; Trainmen Will Speak

What promises to be a great night in Christian Endeavor circles will be staged at the Sixth Street United Brethren Church to-morrow evening, when the principal speaker will be Boyd S. Fowler, a trainman employed in the Harrisburg yards of the Pennsylvania railroad, who is known throughout the United States and Canada in railroad circles for his many interesting contributions to the Railroad Trainman, the national publication of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and as a platform speaker of marked ability.

Mr. Fowler has had a unique career. He was at one time an "end man" in one of the best-known minstrel organizations and is a cornet soloist. He "hit the trail" during the Stough campaign and since has been speaking and working for the betterment of humanity. His subject will be "Christian Endeavor, a World Power."

secure several weeks' or a month's supply should be reported by both grocers and patrifidellers to the Food Administrator, Dauphin Building, Harrisburg, and vigorous action will be taken.

Small Army After Cards

A small army of grocers, restaurant, hotel and boardinghouse proprietors, and manufacturers who use sugar in their products, stormed the offices of the Dauphin county food administration this morning to sign their "sugar" questionnaires and receive sugar purchase certificates.

Every user of sugar in any quantity, except householders, must fill out and sign a sugar questionnaire if he desires to secure sugar after July 15. The questionnaire must be signed by July 15. Upon the signing of the questionnaire, the sugar purchase certificates are issued by the food administration. Sugar can not be bought without these certificates except in quantities of less than one pound.

More than a score of questionnaires were filled out this morning, and fully ten times that many blanks were taken out of the food administration offices to be signed and returned later. The influx of manufacturers, including bakers, soft drink dispensers, confectioners, druggists, and eatinghouses, hotel and restaurant proprietors, and grocers was much greater than a month ago, when orders were issued by the administration that the questionnaires were to be signed. So many were on hand this morning that it was necessary to call volunteers to
