STATE IS GETTING READY FOR 4TH

Antitoxin Dispensaries Will Be Prepared to Meet All Demands For Serum

'The state has restocked its antitoxin dispensaries and will be ready to meet all demands for the Fourth of July, which we hope will be few,' said Dr. E. F. Royer, state acting commissioner of health, to-day.

Dr. Royer last night issued a warning against allowing Fourth of July injuries to go untreated and advised immediate action. He says: 'Valuable first-aid may be rendered to the injured while waiting to secure a physician's services, by thoroughly washing the wounded area with water that has been boiled, and to each pint of which has been added a teaspoonful of table salt.

Antitoxin stations in this section are: Adams, C. William Beales, Gettysburg; Berks, William H. Raser, Reading; Dauphin, E. Z. Gross, Harrisburg; Juniata, Charles E. Walley, Mifflintown; Lancaster, J. A. Miller, Lancaster; Lebanon, C. E. Borer, Lebanon; Lehigh, Keiper Drug Store, Allentown; Lycoming, L. L. Walton & Co., Williamsport; Northumberland, W. K. Armstrong, Sunbury; Perry, Dr. A. R. Johnston, New Bloomfield; Schuylkill, W. S. Cowen, Pottsville; York, Heiges & Hildebrand, York.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER New Cumberland, Pa., July 2.—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hutton entertained at dinner at their home in York county, on Sunday. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Mowery and daughter, Keith.
