PLAN STATION AT U. S. DEPOTS

It Is Said Ordnance Field Is to Be Important Stop on Philadelphia Division

Work on the new Pennsylvania railroad station at the Middletown Ordnance depot is expected to start early next week. The name for the new stopping place has not been announced. A number of names have been suggested, including Villa, Graysport, Ordnance and Jednota. The station it is said will be located east of the present crossing. There is a probability that a subway leading to the Ordnance depot field will be constructed. This would eliminate the present dangerous railroad crossing.

Major William B. Gray recommended this improvement some time ago. With the new sidings to handle traffic to and from the Ordnance warehouse, the crossing has been made additionally dangerous. The entrance to the Ordnance field will be west of the tracks. A subway would also mean the elimination of two grade approaches to the crossing.

Material on Hand

Planks for the platform, and material for the fence between the tracks was delivered. Surveys were made last week. The new station, it is said, will be a one-story stone and brick structure, and will include offices for yard forces in charge of the traffic at both the Ordnance and aviation depots. It is said that the Ordnance depot will be an important railroad point on the Philadelphia division.

Part of the plans will include a foot subway to enable passengers to reach trains without the necessity of crossing the tracks. Two platforms will be constructed, on east and west

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, make well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Veteran Baggage Man Is Now Honor Roll Employee

Charles O'Connor, baggage master on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad, retired from duty after a service of fifty-six years for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, yesterday.

As an expression of the esteem in which he is held by his fellow employees, he was last evening presented by them with a handsome trunk and traveling bag. The presentation was made at the Tyrone station and short speeches were made by R. B. Freeman, E. W. Stine and R. D. Farrell. Mr. O'Connor replied, graciously acknowledging the gift.

Following his retirement Mr. O'Connor will enjoy a trip and will make use of the gift of his fellow workers. He has a wide acquaintance in railroad circles and has been a frequent visitor to Harrisburg.

Distillery Turns From Whisky to Coal Tar

Detroit, July 2.—Formation of a company to manufacture aniline and other dyes has been completed by Hiram Walker & Sons, distillers of Walkerville, Ontario, opposite Detroit. The Walker concern has been hitherto known as manufacturer of a well-advertised brand of whisky. As soon as a charter is allowed by the Canadian government the company will commence building a $1,000,000 plant on the Sandwich river front upon property leased from the Canadian Salt Company. They will also build a factory at Walkerville to manufacture toluol. Patent rights have been granted to a company which will be chartered to do business under the name of Hiram Walker & Sons Chemical Company, capitalized at $500,000.

Deodate Pig Club Shows Much Progress

The Deodate Pig Club, with fourteen members throughout Coneyago township, met at Deodate last evening to submit reports on the progress of their work to Paul Konig, assistant county farm agent, who is in charge of the Pig and Poultry Clubs. Besides the members there were as many other young farmers of the township on hand to secure information regarding pig raising. The reports showed that the highest gain was 65 pounds in 51 days. The average gain of the pigs was 54 pounds in 51 days. "You can see how fast these young people are raising pork for Uncle Sam," Mr. Konig declared after the meeting.

HEAVY TRAFFIC STILL CONTINUES

Local Railroad Officials Keep Close Watch; Reading Is Breaking Coal Records

Local officials of the Pennsylvania railroad and the Reading Railroad, report record breaking shipments of soft coal. The Reading is handling an average of 2,000 cars daily. Soft coal traffic, it is said, has been a big factor in periodical congestions. At Rutherford yards the busiest year in the history of this important terminal is reported.

With additional tracks and increased motive power, conditions have greatly improved. General Superintendent W. H. Keffer was at Rutherford yesterday, and is much pleased with conditions. The Harrisburg division under the superintendency of R. Boone Abbott has made a wonderful stride in handling war shipments, especially soft coal. Other big shipments are also passing eastward daily.

Soft Coal Production

According to the United States Geological Survey, soft coal production in the week ended June 22 was 12,016,000 tons, against 12,626,000 tons the week before and 12,427,000 tons the week ended June 8. For three weeks of June, ended June 22, the total output has been 37,069,000 tons against 33,551,000 tons in the corresponding period last year. This increase, 3,418,000 tons, is only a trifle more than 10 per cent. over last year's output. Carried throughout the year it would add 60,000,000 or so tons to the 1917 production.

Beehive Coke Production

In the week ended June 22 was 604,000 tons, against 661,000 tons the week before and 626,000 tons the week ended June 8. By-product coke production was 489,542 tons, against 484,290 tons the week ended June 15.

Car Shortage Figures

Car shortage figures have been completed only to June 15, but they show a turn for the worse. Percentages of loss, due to this cause, are reported as follows by the Survey in these important districts:

Week ended	Week ended
June 8	June 15
Western Penna.	6.30	11.40
Westmoreland	2.40	3.10
Central Penna.	1.30	3.00
Somerset County.	13.40	27.80
Fairmont	16.50	16.50

For the country, as a whole, the survey reports the loss of tonnage due to lack of cars as 10.9 per cent. in the week ended June 15, against 7.8 per cent. in the week ended June 8 and 8.40 per cent. in the week ended June 1.

Senate Passes Bill Grouping War Relatives

Washington, July 2.—The Senate without a dissenting vote, yesterday passed the bill to incorporate the Mothers of Democracy, an organization of women relatives of Americans who are fighting overseas.

Senator Knox, who introduced the bill a week ago at the request of the Pittsburgh women, who originated the movement, and the Philadelphia women, including Mrs. William J. Clothier, Mrs. John Wanamaker and others who have helped to form local organizations, called up the bill. It will be passed by the House today or to-morrow.

In a formal statement the Senate judiciary committee declared its attitude toward the bill in the following manner: "Senator Knox appeared before the committee, which has been almost unanimous in the opinion that no corporations should be created by Congress, but this bill was ordered reported after Senator Knox had pointed out that the Mothers of Democracy will not engage in any business of soliciting funds or disseminating propaganda or participate in politics or do any of the things that have aroused objection on the part of members of Congress to other corporations in part created by Congress, and as amended to limit the life of the corporation to the duration of the war and three years thereafter."

Woman Cook Used Mails to Defraud

Lodi, Cal. — Charges that she used the United States mails to defraud persons seeking a woman ranch cook have caused the arrest here, by Post Office Inspector W. W. Marshall, of Mrs. A. Wising.

The woman was employed on the Henderson Brothers' ranch at Dry Creek.

According to the evidence laid before Justice of the Peace Solkmore, and upon which she was held for trial, the woman inscribed letters to farmers, asking employment as a cook. The answer of acceptance received, it is charged, she secured transportation money and then failed to report for work.

Brisbane to Hearst: Run For Governor!

Washington, July 2. — Any doubt that William R. Hearst is a candidate for the Democratic party's nomination for Governor of New York appears to have been removed by the publication to-day in The Washington Times of an editorial by Arthur Brisbane, Mr. Hearst's principal editor, calling on Mr. Hearst to announce his candidacy for Governor.

The editorial takes up a solid page. It is printed in big type, and is surrounded by headlines running clear across the page, reading as follows: "To William Randolph Hearst: Why don't you run for Governor of New York, beginning your campaign NOW, and give those experts in patriotism something to think about?"

Girl of 12 Seeks Job as Riveter in Shipyard

San Francisco. — "Mister, please, mister, can I have a job?" "All the girls on my block are picking fruit; the boys are working in the shipyards, and I want to do something for Uncle Sam," twelve-year-old Alice told Charles Sjoberg, timekeeper at the Hanlon Dry Dock and Shipbuilding plant, as she sought a "position."

"Sure, I can do anything," she said, as she explained that her name was just Alice. "I'd like to be a riveter, or a rivet-passer," she added as she said she would grow up and be a riveter and break the records.

Tears welled in her eyes as she set out in search of an orchard where she could pick fruit, after Sjoberg told her she would hardly do as a riveter.
