TO WIDEN STREET Plans for widening Second street and Linglestown road to cighty feet, in a large tract north of the city line owned by Colonel Frederick M. Ott, were approved to-day at a special meeting of the City Planning Com-mission. The plans will conform with those now being made in the plotting of the Fourteenth Ward, which was recently annexed. Two other plans were approved by the commission, one for a block of lots in the borough of Paxtang and another for lots at Emola. The latter plan was made several years ago by Ira Shaull, but was presented for approval to comply with the law giving the commission jurisdiction over territory within three miles of the city limits. A number of other changes will be made by the school district this year, including the removal of the Teachers Training school to the Steele build-ing and the abandoning of one of the rooms in the present administration building, which will then be used for a storage room. The large room used for the training school may be used for the meetings of the board used for office purposes.

BUILDING PERMIT A building permit was issued to-day to M. Sollenberger, contractor for Mrs. Rachael M. Skane, for the con-struction of an addition at the rear of 616 Calder street. The improve-ments will cost $500.
