Several Hundred Italians Parade to Show Loyalty

In a tremendous demonstration of their intense American spirit, several hundred Italian men and women, with many of the women in Red Cross uniform and many of the children in military dress, paraded Steelton streets last evening before the Red Cross benefit dance. The Italians were led by the Sons of Italy band.

Last evening's dance was held in the hall at Second and Washington streets under the auspices of Steelton Italians. It was one of a series being given in Steelton by the several nationalities that live there. The Red Cross fund in Steelton has been considerably swelled by these dances.

RAILROAD RUMBLES

LATE FIGURES ON WOMEN WORKERS

Official Report, Out Today, Tells What Fair Sex Is Doing

Philadelphia, July 10.—A net gain of 1,481 in the number of women employed on the various divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad, eastern lines, was made during the month of June. This is shown by the daily reports of the division superintendents. On May 31 a total of 6,873 women were employed in the division offices, while the report for June 30, which has just been compiled, shows a total of 8,354 female employees on all divisions.

The latest compilation for all departments of the Pennsylvania railroad, eastern lines, including the general offices, June 1, shows a total of 8,767 women in the service on all divisions and in all departments at that time. One year previously there were only 1,945 women employed, showing an increase in a year of 6,822. The earliest compilation ever made of the number of women at work in all departments was that of May 1, 1917, which showed 1,494, making an increase in thirteen months of 7,273.

When Women Are Doing

At present women are working in sixty-nine classified occupations on the Pennsylvania railroad, and have invaded many lines of employment—some involving manual labor—which were formerly regarded as capable of being filled only by men.

To-day six women are working in various shops, on car repairs; one is employed as a "caller," her duties being to summon trainmen for their runs; 74 women are at work cleaning locomotives; one is a crane operator; four are employed as locomotive dispatchers; 29 are draughtswomen; 7 are draughting apprentices; 5 women are operating steam hammers; 3 are gang leaders; one is a coal inspector; 595 are working as laborers; 37 are employed as crane hands; 234 are messengers and assistant messengers; 6 are mechanics' helpers; 2 are oilers; 29 are classed as shop hands; 15 are employed as power operators; 8 are leverwomen; 9 are drawbridge attendants; 2 are switch attendants; 38 work as freight truckers; one is a truck driver; 67 are curable operators; 8 are upholsterers; 2 are warehouse women and 92 are employed as crossing watchwomen.

Women are also employed as signalwomen and assistants; 16 bureau of information attendants; 24 parcel room attendants; 258 storeroom attendants; 611 car cleaners; 1 Pullman space distributors; 12 elevator operators and 81 ticket sellers.

In the lines of work more customarily followed by women, there are 195 janitors; 679 telephone operators; 266 telegraph operators; 121 telegraph operator students; 15 cooks and 4,723 girls and women who are classed as clerks, stenographers and typists.
