Sale of Inrift Stamps Adjutant General Beary has or-dered a tent placed near military headquarters at Mt. Gretna for use as a War Stamp and Red Cross sta-tion by way of furthering the in-tensive drive for sale of the stamps which is to continue through the period of encampment of the Penn-sylvania Reserve National Guard, July 13-19. The corps of women selling War Stamps will be under the direction of Mrs. Harry Haws, of Mt. Gretna, while the Red Cross women will be under the supervision of Mrs. E. A. Nicodemus, of Harrisburg. A detail of Boy Scouts from Har-risburg. York, Philadelphia and Lebanon, summering at Mt. Gretna, will be on duty during the week to act as couriers and orderlies and Miss Miriam Craiglow, a Philadel-phia Girl Scout, who took an active part in the War Stamp and War Chest drives in that city, will also serve. Among those who have volunteer-

Alleged Murder in lexas Police have not yet heard from Texas regarding the alleged murder committed there by Seben Hen-dricks, 122 Monroe street, who was arrested yesterday morning on in-formation furnished the police by a negress who formerly lived with Aaron Hendricks, brother of the sus-pected murderer. Because she was assaulted by her former lover when she returned to thi scity with her husband, the negress supplied the police with the information on which he was arrested. Aaron Hendricks, the suspect's brother, declared to po-lice this morning that Seben had murdered a man in Texas several months ago, but that the case had been "settled." Police are waiting an answer from the telegrams they sent to Texas yesterday.

Meally a Small Sum
While the sum of $112,000,000 as a minimum seems large it is small when it is known that it provides hardly 10 cents a day for the individual soldier. Dr. Mott stated that the demand for the war and that the demand for the conditions. It is now a war of nations and that there had been no finer decision that that corporating the Y. W. C.
