ROBBER CHASED FROM FAIR HOME

Attempt to Rob Prevented by Return of Lemoyne Man From Work at Night

Lemoyne, Pa., July 12.—Upon entering his home in Herman avenue last evening after returning from work, Sterling Fair was approached by a negro who asked him where he intended to go.

The negro is thought to be the one who annoyed Mrs. E. D. Artley and her daughter, Miss Margaret Artley, about 11 o'clock, when they were returning home from a store

In Rossmoyne street, of which Miss Artley has charge. According to the girl's story the negro walked closely behind them from the store to their residence and after they fled into the house he looted in the immediate vicinity for almost an hour.

The Fair residence is located but a few doors away from the home of C. D. Artley.

MAY PREVENT HIGHER FARES

Old Trolley Franchise Ordinance, Passed by Camp Hill Council, Being Looked Up

Camp Hill, Pa., July 12.—An ordinance passed several years ago may be the means of retaining a five-cent fare on the Valley Railways line through the borough, according to statements of several councilmen at the monthly meeting last night.

The council authorized the borough solicitor to look up all ordinances concerning contracts between the street car company and the borough, in an effort to ascertain whether or not the borough laws contain any agreements which would provide for a five-cent fare.

In the opinion of councilmen, an ordinance passed while the Harrisburg and White Hill Railway Company was in existence provides that the company should be relieved of the pole and wire tax under the provisions that Camp Hill be given a five-cent fare.

C. A. Hemp, chairman of the committee, was appointed to get in touch with the fuel administration to ask permission to place oil in Market street. Charles P. Adams was instructed to see the State Highway Department officials in an effort to push the work on the street as fast as possible.

Council authorized the tax collector to execute taxes to the amount of $40. Residents who were exonerated are those who are in the service of their country and those who pay personal tax elsewhere.

GOVERNOR URGES BASTILE DAY

Asks That State of Pennsylvania Show Its Admiration For French Republic

A proclamation urging the people of Pennsylvania to observe Bastille Day in a fitting manner was issued to-day from the State Capitol, having been sent from Maine by Governor Brumbaugh. The proclamation calls for special reference to the great French anniversary in the services and exercises of Sunday.

"Whereas, Sunday, July the fourteenth, is an anniversary memorable to the French people and to all others that like them have resisted tyranny and won true liberty, giving to men the sacred right to be governed only as they will to be governed, and making an end of that autocracy that in the past, as even now, has cursed and never blessed the human race; and whereas, Over one million splendid men of the United States are now in France, joined in permanent purpose with the people of the heroic land and with our other worthy allies, to make an end of wrong to government and to give all the world the blessing of our country so generously enjoyed; and

"Whereas, The successful outcome of the contest is essential to the welfare of mankind, and the security of free government, the expansion of democracy, and the enduring glory of the vital religion of all Christian nations; "Now, Therefore, I, Martin G. Brumbaugh, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby set aside and proclaim July fourteenth as a day of religious and patriotic consecration, and I urge and direct that on that day, in all our places of worship, special services be held in commemoration of the heroic spirit of France and our other allies, and in re-consecration to our Lord and King and to the Prince of Peace on the earth, let all our friendly flags fly to the breeze; let our people in church and in marching processions sing the stately hymns of the church and the national airs including the Marseillaise, to the end that God may join us securely and guide us continuously, giving us the victory of enduring peace and his cause increased honor."

Mayor Keister Calls on Harrisburg to Celebrate French Independence Day

Mayor Daniel L. Keister in a statement issued last night has called upon the people of Harrisburg to turn out in force to make the celebration of Bastille Day next Sunday a momentous event in the history of the city. The Mayor's statement follows:

"To the Citizens of Harrisburg: "Despite the presence of German troops taken to Paris to crush a people longing to be free, the French populace on July 14, 1789, destroyed the Bastille, symbol of a tyranny against which the larger part of the world to-day is in arms.

Although the hordes of the Huns are again on her soil, France next Sunday will observe the 129th anniversary of the day on which she threw off the yoke of feudalism. In that observance she will be joined not only by her allies in Europe, but by the people of the United States.

"Harrisburg, the brightest star in the galaxy of Pennsylvania cities, will join with hundreds of other cities in celebrating the day of the French Republic."

His Wife Couldn't Stand His Breath

"Get Cured or Get a Divorce" the Ultimatum Handed to Wilbur Taunt.

AND TANLAC DID IT "I have such bad stomach trouble that it almost broke up my home," says Wilbur Taunt, of North Seventh street, Harrisburg, Pa. "No wonder people turned their heads when I came near them."

"Finally my wife said to me: 'Wilbur, I can't stand the smell of your breath any longer, go get cured or get a divorce.'"

American Municipalities in observance of July 14—Bastille Day—just as scores of cities in France held observance July Fourth in honor of American Independence Day.

Feudalism, driven from the soil of France when the draw-bridges were lowered over the ancient moat of the infamous Bastille, continues to flourish on the banks of the Danube and the Rhine; and the medievalism of Germany and Austria is merely ingeniously veneered. In France and in America, as well as in many other countries Bastille Day, will be observed by all those who love the spirit of liberty and who believe in the rights of man. Therefore, I call upon the people of Harrisburg on next Sunday to give thought to that momentous occurrence of 129 years ago, and to join, one and all, in the several exercises in the churches and at Reservoir Park commemorating the spirit of 1789."

NIGHT OPERATOR—ALL IN VINOL Made Him Feel Better, Look Better, Sleep Better

Springfield, Mass.—"I am a night operator—was all run down, couldn't sleep, had no ambition—I had tried blood and nerve tonics without help—and thought I would try Vinol and I must say it has built me up so I feel better, look better and sleep better."—Charles T. Harder.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Harder's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run down system, make rich, red blood and create strength.
