Knitting Club Picnic at Shady Nook Cottage

The women of a knitting club planned a picnic for their husbands and families yesterday at Shady Nook cottage, on the banks of the Susquehanna, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Roth.

The following guests enjoyed an excellent picnic lunch, boating, swimming, etc.: Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Quigley and sons, Richard and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Clinger and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Eby and children, Margaret and John; Mrs. Harry Sprague, of Wormleysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Barnitz, Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Roth and children, Caroline and Richard Roth.

Kenneth Gable, of the U. S. S. Connecticut, who is a frequent visitor in this city, is visiting his parents in Minneapolis.

WOMEN URGED TO DO WAR WORK

Immanuel Church Auxiliary Wants Additional Helpers in Work

The Red Cross auxiliary of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church had its regular meeting last night. The women, about thirty in number, worked on surgical dressings and bandages, and a great deal was accomplished. Miss Helen McFarland, of the Red Cross headquarters, who was inspecting last evening, spoke favorably of the work and workers and also commented upon the coolness and pleasantness of the rooms. Red Cross headquarters has a big order of special Government work to fill before the middle of August. All auxiliaries have been urged to make bigger efforts. While the meeting at night was well attended, twice the number could be used. Women of the church and neighborhood are invited to come. Meetings are held every Tuesday and Thursday—hours from 1.30 to 4.30 and 7 to 9.30.

HOME FROM VIRGINIA Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Barton, of Second and Hamilton streets, are home after a delightful visit in Winchester, Va., with Mr. Barton's father, Joseph M. Barton. Many social events were given in their honor and they had the pleasure of a long automobile trip through Northern Virginia, visiting many places of historic interest. Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler is home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Landwehr, at South Bethlehem. Miss Genevieve Carter went home to Baltimore this morning after a little visit among old friends here. Mrs. E. J. Kniesly, of the Derry block apartments, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Ruth, of Highspire.

CAPTAIN DORSEY SAFE IN FRANCE

Mrs. Rena Carter Receives Card of Brother's Safe Arrival Over There

CAPTAIN BEVERLY L. DORSEY Mrs. Rena Carter, of 229 North River street, has received word of the arrival of her brother, Captain Beverly L. Dorsey, safely over to the other side of the waters. Captain Dorsey, who is attached to the Three Hundred and Seventeenth Ammunition Train of the U. S. R., has been in the service of the United States Army for twenty years, having fought in the Spanish-American war. He has been located at Camp Funston, Fort Riley, Kansas, for the last eight years where he has trained men for military service. Captain Dorsey is a son of Edward Dorsey, of Spotsylvania, Va., and until his service in the Army had always lived in the south. Mrs. Ethel Dorsey, his wife, who has been with her husband during the time he was at Camp Funston, will arrive in the city this week to make her home with Mrs. Carter while her husband is fighting for the right with the Army over across the seas.

LIEUT. MECKLEY GETS FURLOUGH

Surprises His Friends by Announcing Marriage to Miss Hoover

What mysterious password that Cupid can give to the commander of the army camp to secure a furlough is not known to the general public, but evidently some such word exists, judging from the number of young men who secure a leave of absence and come home to surprise their friends by leading some fair young lady to the altar. Among the latest to be granted this special privilege is Lieutenant Charles Meckley, of Camp Hancock, who arrived at his home in Penbrook this week, presumably to visit his friends. To-day, however, he is introducing Mrs. Charles E. Meckley, to a host of surprised friends. Miss Ellen L. Hoover and Lieutenant Charles E. Meckley, were married yesterday at the First Methodist Church in Lancaster. They were attended by Mrs. R. J. Robinson and her daughter Ellen, of Lancaster, aunt and cousin of Mrs. Meckley. Miss Ellen Robinson is secretary and superintendent of the Lancaster Hospital. Lieutenant Meckley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Meckley, of Penbrook, and a clerk in the First National Bank of Harrisburg, until he enlisted and was assigned to Camp at Corpus Christi Texas, when the United States entered the war. Later he was assigned to the service in the auditorium interest which he met in the auditorium Sunday evening at the time of the regular church service. The program which was entirely patriotic included, communitarian, singing of patriotic songs, local solos by Arthur Gardner and Eugene Baptist, of this city; readings, by Miss Margaret Sullenberger, of this city, and a stirring address by Professor Kelson Green, of Carlisle, on the deep significance of the Bastille event in relation to history. The offering offered during the service was given over to the Red Cross. Through the courtesy of the Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart store flags of the allied nations, and draperies of the national colors made an attractive and suggestive patriotic setting for the service. Mrs. Walter Yingling, 645 Hamilton street, is home after visiting Mrs. Addie Smith, in Baltimore. Miss Roberta Daugherty, of 1011 North Second street, has opened her home after a long visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daugherty in Altoona. Miss Mae Mounts started Monday for a ten day visit with Miss Sauer Moyer at Caledonia Park, where she is summering. Mrs. William B. McCaleb and son, Baird McCaleb, are guests of Mrs. H. J. Babb at Mt. Gretna. Mr. and Mrs. Babb are occupying the cottage, Oak View, for the summer. Mrs. John T. Wagner, of 1242 Bailey street, is spending a fortnight with Mrs. William Uhler at Mt. Gretna. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schnader are home after a trip to Atlantic City. Miss Helen Vickers, of Steelton, is going to Watford, Conn., to study vocal music with Ross David at his summer school there. Miss Annie Sours and Paul Ogden, of Germantown; Mrs. Robert Campbell and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. Walter Yingling of Hamilton street.

Henry Cocklin's Friends Hear He Landed Safely

Henry Cocklin, son of W. C. Cocklin, a well-known postman, has sent his father word of his safe arrival across the sea. The young man who was an employee of the P. R. R. until he entered the service, is a member of Battery E, 108th Field Artillery. He is in excellent health. Y. M. H. A. Says Goodby to Dr. George A. Treiman Dr. George A. Treiman, a well-known local physician living at 721 North Sixth street, has enlisted in the Medical Corps it was recently announced. Last night a number of prominent Jews of Harrisburg gathered at his home to wish him good-bye on his journey. The physician left for Hoboken, N. Y., this morning. Among the number who visited Dr. Treiman last night were many members of the Young Men's Hebrew Association. These met at Chisuk Emdin synagogue, Sixth and Forster streets, and marched to Dr. Treiman's home, where they found him treating a patient. He was completely taken by surprise. On behalf of the Y. M. H. A. he was given a handsome wristwatch. Leon Lowengard, president of the association, made the presentation speech in which he praised Dr. Treiman for his faithful work in behalf of the organization. Dr. Treiman was active in the organization about eight years ago and has continued to show his interest since that time. Addresses were made by Morris Jacobson, Eugene Cohen, Rabbi Rottenhoff and Robert Rosenberg. The Rev. Edwin P. Robinson also spoke. Dr. Treiman replied appropriately, saying that he was leaving because his country called and because he wanted to show the loyalty of the Jewish race. Dr. Treiman has passed the two score and ten mark, but this, he says, does not dampen his willingness to do his bit to win the battle against the Hun. Miss Anne M. Zimmerman, 1524 Beryth street, is spending a month at Ross Valley Sanatorium, Media, Pa. Miss Martha O. Sells and Miss Sue Sells, of 17 North Front street, are the guests of Mrs. William E. Wright at her summer home, Verdun. Miss Helen Arch, of Kunkel and Cowden streets, is home after a visit with friends in Lancaster. Miss Anna May Pancake, of 119 Paxton streets, is spending the summer with relatives on a farm near Lough Run. Miss Grace Saul, 26 South Seventeenth street, has gone to Stoverdale to spend a short time at Hickory Lodge.

Capital Legion Committee Guests at Birthday Party

Mrs. J. L. Shader, 1202 Bailey street, entertained the picnic committee of Capital Legion No. 1108, of the National Protective Legion last evening at her home in celebration of her birthday. Mrs. Shader received many lovely gifts from her friends and a number of birthday congratulations. After an evening of music by Mrs. Emma McCree, games and supper was served to the guests. Those present were: Mrs. Ross Motter, chairman of the picnic committee; Mrs. George Garverick, Mrs. Katherine Bretz, Mrs. Anna Barkey, Mrs. Harry Seiders, Mrs. J. N. Hursh, Mrs. Christina Dare, Mrs. Emma McCree, Mrs. Frank Garverick, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Shader, Miss Evelyn Seiders, John Elcher, John Dare, John Forney, Irvin Shader and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shelby. Henry Southgate, of Buffalo, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. C. Gitt, 1416 State street. Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Swiler, 1831 Derry street, spent Monday in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Eby, Margaret Eby, John Eby and Mrs. Cordella Shirk, 1321 Derry street, left to-day for McAllisterville, where they will spend the remainder of the summer at their summer home. Mrs. Joseph W. Rehn and children, Betty and Neil, 520 North Sixteenth street, have returned from Downingtown, where they were visiting. Mrs. James W. Andrews and daughter Katherine, of 1806 State street, left Monday morning for Ocean Grove, where they will spend several weeks.

HOME AFTER MOTOR TRIP

Mrs. G. F. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Smith and daughter Eleanor and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Richards and son, Lester, Jr., have returned after an automobile trip to Pottsville, Shenandoah and Prackville, where they visited among relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Terwilliger, of Bloomsburg, Pa., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Young, 612 North Sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steuffer and children, Viola and Bobbie, 1903 Forster street, have just returned from an extended visit in Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Wilmington and New York. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Speakman and small daughter Geraldine, 709 North Seventeenth street, spent yesterday at Alfreeta Rock.
