tored, while in the mandamus action the appeal was dismissed at the cost of the appellant.

One of the appeals was in the case of Commonwealth vs Semet-Solvay Company, in which Judge Kunke ruled that the company was liable for state tax on money deposited in banks outside the state and also for funds which were received in in banks outside the state and also for funds which were received in payment for work done in other states. The company contended it could not be taxed for these amounts but Judge Kunkel's decision to the contrary was affirmed.

The second tax case was Commonwealth vs. Harrisburg Light and Power Company. Judge Kunkel in this case handed down an opinion that the company was not taxable for funds received in furnishing steam heat but only for money received in jits electrical business. Upon appeal by the state the Supreme Court affirmed the decision given here.

In the third action, a mandamus proceeding by the borough council of Gettysburg against the State Highway Commissioner, the attempt was made to company the state to reverse

Early in the movement prisoners take in the advance began coming in.

The northern point of the front of attack is Fontenow, nearly a mile north of the river Aisne.

In the fighting on the front of the German offensive, the French last night stopped the Germans in the face of violent attacks which the enemy launched, southwest of Nanteuil-la-Fosse, between the Marne and Rheims.

On the front beyond Rheims

The attack was believed to be making good progress.

Advices this afternoon said the Germans made no further attacks east of Rheims and that the French at various points on the front had regained ground.

The French, the report states have recaptured Montvoison, south of the Marne, at the point where the Germans had advanced furthest toward Epernay and Chene-la-Reine, to the west, and took as well the heights west of those villages, overlooking the Marne.

The Germans are reported to have pade slight progress north of St.

On the French Front in France, July 18.—One of the principal elements which worked toward bringing the German offiensive to a halt was the splendid co-operation of the transport and information services. In Champagne, lorry drivers passed four days and nights without a moment's repose in hurrying troops from one section of the line to another, wherever most needed, and conveying tens of thousands of men, often under heavy fire.

The role of the carrier pigeon proved most important in the Champagne fighting where the French advance posts were often cut off from the main body and possessed only this means of communicating. The birds constantly brought back messes sages keeping the staff informed con-
