

ROOSEVELT, SAD AT HEART, MOVES N. Y. CONVENTION

Fresh From Grief-Stricken Home, Former President Is Chief Figure at Meeting

THEODORE ROOSEVELT Who Addressed Republican Convention at Saratoga, N. Y., This Afternoon

By Associated Press. Convention Hall, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 18.—Patriotism and a genuine expression of heartfelt sympathy for the saddened family of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, which had just given a beloved son and brother to the cause for which his country is fighting, was the feature of today's opening session of the Republican state convention...

FRENCH LAUNCH GREATEST ATTACK

The French have reached a point menacing the most important German railway centers which feeds the entire front west of Rheims. The French artillery now is within easy shelling distance of these railways and should be able to make life miserable for a large section of the German army.

At Old Lines. Military men attach great importance to the lateral railway lines around Soissons and say that if General Foch can get his military into position to keep these lines out of action he will make the movement of the German supplies in the whole sector between Rheims and Chateau Thierry impossible.

Paris, July 18.—The French this morning delivered an attack along the line from the river Aisne as far south as the region of Belleau, a front of about 25 miles, and made progress at certain points of between a mile and a half and two miles. The situation on the Marne and Champagne fronts is unchanged.

On the extreme east of the recent German offensive the French have recaptured their old lines for a distance of three or four miles.

There must be no peace until Germany is beaten to her knees and leave her with a strangle-hold on Russia, and through her vassal allies, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey, dominates Europe. France will not accept a peace which would mean that she had won the war and taken a great stride toward world dominion.

INSPECTION PARTY FINDS BAD CONDITION

As a whole Harrisburg people will be proud of their city. But there are sore spots that must be healed; there is a evil that must be corrected. There are districts in Harrisburg, where living conditions are bad beyond description. Bad is not an adjective; horrible is the term.

Dr. Raunick as Escort. Yesterday Dr. Raunick, city health officer, who has been urging for years the adoption of a model housing code, accompanied a Telegraph inspection party through several of the worst localities. What they saw fairly sickened the little party.

Near Heart of Town. The first stop was made in Cowden street, just north of Strawberry, where there is a small row of ten disreputable appearing tenement houses. An intelligent colored man who said he had resided in the neighborhood for many years, told the inspectors that the building on the top floor of the 16 Cowden street, which is an attic room with sloping roof ventilated with one window, is not a desirable rental.

French Make Progress. London, July 18.—News received in London indicates the attack started by the French this morning on the front between Chateau Thierry and Soissons on a considerable scale. The attack was believed to be making good progress.

Window Boxes Bloom in Attractive Fashion. Not since the Telegraph building was first decorated several years ago with window boxes from the first floor to the seventh, has the floral picture been quite so attractive as this year. Many persons have stopped to admire the beautiful flowers and vines and it is a pleasure to the Telegraph management to feel that this feature is so generally appreciated.

FRENCH GENERAL THRILLS TROOPS ON EVE OF BATTLE

Stand Firm, Have but One Thought, Kill Until They Cry Enough—Gauraud

On the French Front in France, Wednesday, July 17.—In stirring phrases, imploring them to stand firm, General H. J. E. Gauraud, in command of the French and American troops east of Rheims and in Champagne, appealed to his men before the German offensive. In an order issued to his soldiers, he said: "We may be attacked at any moment. Your breast has been engaged in under more favorable conditions. You were warned and are on guard with powerful reinforcements of infantry making artillery. You will fight on the ground you have transformed by your hard work into redoubtable fortresses which are invulnerable if the passage is properly guarded."

Conditions in Hay alley back of the Verbeke street markethouse are greatly improved as a result of health department efforts. The "apartment houses" of that district fell down last winter and the tenants perforce had to move out. The inspectors put this old three-story structure back into shape for habitation. How it ever got past the building inspector is not known.

Over Stables. Rapidly running through the bad quarter along Capitol and Marion streets, the inspectors found the worst conditions were found in the rear of 1419 and 1421 Marion street, where four "apartments," renting at a month for $10 each, consisting of one room occupied by one family, had been constructed over a horse stable. These are approached by an outside gallery, rickety and unsafe, to which a single step leads up. They have little light but plenty of air—both from the stable below and through the numerous cracks. There are no chimneys and one toilet, single outside hydrant supplies water for these and nearby houses. The "apartments" are scarcely fit for chicken coops and not much larger.

Another "apartment house" at 1419 Capitol street is of much better character of its own. Here the houses were for the most part owned or rented by self-respecting, prosperous people before the removal of the Eighth ward shacks caused an influx of people from that district. Quite a few very good houses still exist and there are many fine people scattered throughout this whole district who resent the slum conditions being forced into their neighborhoods.

Work or Fight Order Sends Loafers to Work. West Fairview, July 18.—Constable Albert J. Shaull stated today that it was not necessary to make any arrests on the new "work or fight" order as ten idlers or loafers which made this town their home, went to work without a word after they had been notified of the new order. Constable Shaull said he was compelled to threaten to place two of the number in the workhouse lockup. The threat brought the right result, as all the men went to work.
