Waynesboro, Pa., July 22.—The Presbyterian annual reunion at Pen Park, dated for Thursday, August 1, has been called off. The committee cannot get the usual rail nor any special concessions from the railroad, and as the biggest part of the reunionists come from Harrisburg and other distant points to the north, involving a considerable outlay for railroad fare, the committee has deemed it wise to pass up the reunion this year.

Gettysburg High School Overcrowded With Pupils

Gettysburg, Pa., July 22.—From present indications the local high school will be more overcrowded than ever. For several years the high school has not been able to accommodate the pupils in the manner desired by the school or the faculty and everything possible has been done to relieve the situation. Last year's graduating class numbered thirty-three, with a few who have finished a course, might make the number forty who will not return. The incoming freshman class will likely number seventy, making the situation one that is causing considerable worry to those in charge.

A year or more ago the directors put up to the people the question of building a new high school, but this was turned down by a substantial majority at the election. Something must now be done and the directors are negotiating with several property owners. It is altogether likely that before long a new high school building will be purchased where the household arts department will be housed, giving the entire school building over to the teaching of the academic branches.
