twenty-four-mile rate motorists will now drive thirty-five to forty miles an hour, increasing the danger for pedestrians. Other members dis-agreed with him and denied his charge that they were determined to rule out the fiteen-mile clause. As soon as Council convened the ordinance was, called for reading. Commissioner Lynch offered the amendment to the second section changing the speed limit and upon the suggestion of Commissioner Burnett agreed to make his amend-ment conform with the state traffic

With the rapidly increasing busi-ness of the Harrisburg Post Office four years ago, it was becoming very evident new quarters would soon be needed for the housing of the postal force of Harrisburg. With this pur-pose in view, the quarters were mov-ed tempozarily on January 10, 1914, to the quarters at Third and Locust streets, which they since have occu-pied.

interest, which they since have occul-pied. Extensive improvements were at once started. These improvements, the cost of which has reached the $200,000 figure, will more than double the floor space devoted to postal needs in the old building and will increase the space now avail-able in the temporary quarters two and one-half times. This additional space is now badly needed inasmuch as the builness of the Harrisburg office has more than doubled, both temporary quarters. The entire first floor of the re-novated building will be devoted to mail and parcel post needs. The offices of the superintendent of mails will be located on this floor. On the second floor will be the east wing. In addition, on the north western wing, will be located on the south-east wing.
