

LATE NEWS FROM THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

RECEPTION FOR TRUCK TRAIN MEN

Members of Mechanicsburg Red Cross Quickly Arrange Entertainment For Soldiers

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 25.—After the 11th Ammunition Train passed through town yesterday, the Rev. H. Hall Sharp, president of the Red Cross, issued a hurry call to render canteen service to the soldiers and workers immediately set to work and started the ball rolling. As the soldiers, 130 in number, camped a short distance below town, a community reception was planned for Columbia Hall, Irving College, which was thrown open by Dr. E. E. Campbell, to give the boys some cheer. Ice cream, cakes, coffee, chocolate candy and cigars were served to members of the train, who were a happy lot and pleased with their welcome. The townspeople were glad to chat with the soldiers and many were present despite the late evening.

Lingelstown Boy Killed by Lightning at Quincy

Waynesboro, Pa., July 25.—During a lightning and rain storm that swept over Waynesboro, Quincy, Pen Mar, Blue Ridge Summit and Franklin county in general yesterday, there was not only much destruction of growing corn and vegetables, but several buildings were struck and a boy killed.

Russell Farling, aged 13, an inmate of the Quincy United Brethren Orphanage, just north of Waynesboro, was struck by lightning at 3 o'clock and instantly killed. All his clothing was burned from his body. Three other companions nearby were shocked and rendered unconscious. The boy came to the Quincy United Brethren Orphanage, about eight months ago. His body will be sent home for burial.

CAMP HILL BOROUGH IS SUED FOR 5,000 DAMAGES

Carlisle, Pa., July 25.—George C. Collum has filed an action against the borough of Camp Hill asking for $5,000 damages as the result of a section of concrete sidewalk which in the statement filed here to-day states that he sustained injuries when he fell in Logan street in the town on a section of concrete sidewalk which it is claimed was not properly repaired.

CAMP HILL BOROUGH IS SUED FOR 5,000 DAMAGES

Waynesboro, Pa., July 25.—Outside carpenters, namely, those who are employed by the various contractors of the city in the construction of buildings, etc., Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, threw down their tools and refused to work any longer unless their employers would finance start their pay on the new ruling issued by the war board for carpenters. The outside carpenters are one hundred per cent. organized and yesterday morning every one stopped work. The organization numbers between forty and fifty. The men have been receiving forty cents per hour and want fifty-five cents an hour.

PARADE AT LIVERPOOL

Liverpool, July 25.—Liverpool and vicinity will join to-morrow night in what is expected to be one of the greatest patriotic demonstrations ever held in the borough. All patriotic and fraternal organizations of the town are planning to take part. Escorted by the Citizens' band, the Red Cross organization will be represented by floats. The parade will march through the principal streets of the borough and back to the Square where a band concert and speeches will be heard.

KNOX BROTHERS IN FRANCE

Blain, Pa., July 25.—Word has been received that Paul R. and Stanley L. Knox, sons of the Rev. George H. Knox, former pastor of the Blain Methodist Episcopal church, now at Liverpool, this county, are at the front in France. The young men joined the Governor's Troop more than a year ago at Harrisburg and were first sent to Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga. From there they were recently transported across the seas.

1918 CLASS FOR MILITARY SERVICE

Cumberland County Draft Boards Complete Work of Examination

Carlisle, Pa., July 25.—The bulk of the 1918 registrants in Class 1 are being accepted for full military service, according to the reports of the Cumberland county boards. No. 2 Board is winding up the work of examination of these men and also some of the examinations of others who were moved up under the reclassification. The following is the result of recent physical tests by this board:

Accepted—Floyd E. Barrick, Newville, R. D. 2; Leroy W. Carns, Carlisle; Ralph E. Luby, Shippensburg; Frank S. Phillip, Shippensburg; George W. Burkholder, Shippensburg; Norman W. Morris, Carlisle; David H. Arnold, Newville; R. D. 3; David E. Shulenberg, Shippensburg; Samuel Shopwell, Newville; Loan A. Peck, Carlisle; Charles S. Whittier, Newville, R. D. 2; David M. Gitt, Mt. Holly Springs.

Disqualified—Thomas G. Thompson, Newville.

COMMISSIONER SELLS ARRANGES FOR TRANSFER OF STUDENTS AND EMPLOYEES

Carlisle, Pa., July 25.—The bulk of the employees of the Carlisle Indian School will be transferred to similar institutions in the West, it was announced here following the visit of Indian Commissioner Sells. While in Carlisle Mr. Sells took up the matter of transfer with all of the school employees and insofar as possible their wishes as to changes will be followed out.

The majority of the Indian students will leave Carlisle during the latter part of August, but United States Army officers are expected here in a few weeks to arrange at once for the conversion of the school into a big new hospital for the rehabilitation, reconstruction and training of crippled United States soldiers.

NEWS OF BLAIN SOLDIERS

Blain, Pa., July 25.—Mrs. Marietta Campbell of Blain has received word that her grandson, Bruce C. Lightner, son of H. W. Lightner, of Philadelphia, has arrived overseas in the Medical Corps.

Sergeant James L. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Martin, of Blain, has arrived in France, as has also Private Miles B. Britcher, son of Lewis Britcher, of near Blain, being transported from Camp Meade, Md.

Word has been received by John Wesley Cooney that his son, Cloyd W. Cooney, has landed all right across the waters and Chester Rowe, son of Jefferson Rowe, of Couchtown, east of Blain, is in France, both young soldiers being sent from Camp Meade.

George D. Flickinger, James E. Hockenberry, Charles R. Smith, Roy D. Kessler, Charles Berrier and Clarence Dolby, of Blain and vicinity, left to-day with the contingent of seventy-three drafted men that went from Perry county for Camp Lee, Va.

CELEBRATION FOR RED CROSS

Landisburg, Pa., July 25.—A patriotic celebration with the proceeds to be devoted to the Red Cross, will be conducted under the auspices of the Landisburg Red Cross Auxiliary of the Harrisburg Chapter on Saturday evening. An interesting program has been prepared. Among the speakers engaged are State Senator Scott S. Leiby, of Marysville, and Charles Lehr, of Newport. A big street parade is included in the program. Music will be furnished by the Ellittsburg and Newport bands.

MRS. JACOB KLING BURIED

Landisburg, Pa., July 25.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Jacob Kling, who died at her home here on Monday, aged 64 years. Burial was in the Landisburg Cemetery. Mrs. Kling is survived by her husband, one daughter and four sons. One of the sons is serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

RAILROAD BRAKEMAN HURT

Newport, Pa., July 25.—C. W. Gross, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, of Newport, is suffering a fractured arm and other injuries, received when struck by a projection from a passenger locomotive near Marysville. Gross was walking beside his train to inspect it when the passenger came along.

$580 FOR RED CROSS

Liverpool, July 25.—In the statistical report of the June Red Cross drive which has just been filed by the county chairman, L. W. Brimmer, of Newport, Liverpool contributed $589.80.

AID SOCIETY BANQUET

Dauphin, Pa., July 25.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical Church will hold its annual banquet to-morrow evening for its members and their husbands at the Evangelical parsonage.

ONE-WINGED CHICKEN

Marietta, Pa., July 25.—John Fox, residing on a farm near town, has a chicken which is attracting considerable attention. It is perfectly formed, but has only one wing.

REQUEST TO CHURCH

Marietta, Pa., July 25.—By the will of W. K. Hiestor, he bequeaths $1,000 to the Lancaster First Reformed church, and $500 to the Bethany Orphans Home, at Womelsdorf.

INDIAN SCHOOL CHANGES START

Commissioner Sells Arranges For Transfer of Students and Employees

Carlisle, Pa., July 25.—The bulk of the employees of the Carlisle Indian School will be transferred to similar institutions in the West, it was announced here following the visit of Indian Commissioner Sells. While in Carlisle Mr. Sells took up the matter of transfer with all of the school employees and insofar as possible their wishes as to changes will be followed out.

The majority of the Indian students will leave Carlisle during the latter part of August, but United States Army officers are expected here in a few weeks to arrange at once for the conversion of the school into a big new hospital for the rehabilitation, reconstruction and training of crippled United States soldiers.

NEWS OF BLAIN SOLDIERS

Blain, Pa., July 25.—Mrs. Marietta Campbell of Blain has received word that her grandson, Bruce C. Lightner, son of H. W. Lightner, of Philadelphia, has arrived overseas in the Medical Corps.

Sergeant James L. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Martin, of Blain, has arrived in France, as has also Private Miles B. Britcher, son of Lewis Britcher, of near Blain, being transported from Camp Meade, Md.

Word has been received by John Wesley Cooney that his son, Cloyd W. Cooney, has landed all right across the waters and Chester Rowe, son of Jefferson Rowe, of Couchtown, east of Blain, is in France, both young soldiers being sent from Camp Meade.

CELEBRATION FOR RED CROSS

Landisburg, Pa., July 25.—A patriotic celebration with the proceeds to be devoted to the Red Cross, will be conducted under the auspices of the Landisburg Red Cross Auxiliary of the Harrisburg Chapter on Saturday evening. An interesting program has been prepared. Among the speakers engaged are State Senator Scott S. Leiby, of Marysville, and Charles Lehr, of Newport. A big street parade is included in the program. Music will be furnished by the Ellittsburg and Newport bands.

MRS. JACOB KLING BURIED

Landisburg, Pa., July 25.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Jacob Kling, who died at her home here on Monday, aged 64 years. Burial was in the Landisburg Cemetery. Mrs. Kling is survived by her husband, one daughter and four sons. One of the sons is serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

RAILROAD BRAKEMAN HURT

Newport, Pa., July 25.—C. W. Gross, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, of Newport, is suffering a fractured arm and other injuries, received when struck by a projection from a passenger locomotive near Marysville. Gross was walking beside his train to inspect it when the passenger came along.

$580 FOR RED CROSS

Liverpool, July 25.—In the statistical report of the June Red Cross drive which has just been filed by the county chairman, L. W. Brimmer, of Newport, Liverpool contributed $589.80.

AID SOCIETY BANQUET

Dauphin, Pa., July 25.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical Church will hold its annual banquet to-morrow evening for its members and their husbands at the Evangelical parsonage.

ONE-WINGED CHICKEN

Marietta, Pa., July 25.—John Fox, residing on a farm near town, has a chicken which is attracting considerable attention. It is perfectly formed, but has only one wing.

REQUEST TO CHURCH

Marietta, Pa., July 25.—By the will of W. K. Hiestor, he bequeaths $1,000 to the Lancaster First Reformed church, and $500 to the Bethany Orphans Home, at Womelsdorf.

Award Prizes in Newport War Garden Contests

Newport, Pa., July 25.—Prizes in the four school garden contests, conducted by the Newport Civic Club, have just been announced. The prizes were awarded yesterday afternoon in the Public Library room in the public school building. The committee in charge of the contests included: Mrs. H. A. Moore, Mrs. Hiram Keen and Mrs. Edna Boyer. The three judges of the contest were: Miss Nellie Fickes, Miss Nellie Butz and Mrs. Delphine Pennell. First awards carried prizes of $15.00 and second of $1 each. The awards were:

Girls Between 12 and 16 Years—First, Miss Marie B. Lewis; second, Miss Mary Brimmer and Miss Orpha Liggett (one lot).

Girls Under 12 Years—First, Miss Elizabeth Liggett; second, Miss Gladys Soule.

Boys Under 12 and 16 Years—First, Donald Wagner; second, Edward McKee.

Boys Under 12 Years—First, Louis Baker; second, William Morrow.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Marietta, Pa., July 25.—The Rev. Paul Y. Livingston, pastor of the Wrightsville Lutheran Church, will wed Miss Annie Altland, the date of the ceremony not being set. The announcement was made at a social held Tuesday evening at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Altland.

GIVEN WRISTWATCH

A wristwatch was presented to George H. Reed, yard brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, last night, prior to his departure for a training camp to-day with draftees. The watch was presented by C. S. Shelly, assistant yardmaster, on behalf of other workmen. A fine celebration was held at the yardmaster's office.

NEW POSTMASTERS

James M. Shenk has succeeded George M. Shomberger at Laurel, York county, and Domenico Cordera has taken the place of Emma E. Garland, Schenley, Armstrong county, as fourth class postmasters. Both former incumbents had resigned. These changes were announced at the local postoffice yesterday.

Suburban Notes

NEWPORT

Miss Dorothy Van Newkirk is the guest of Miss Margaret Davis, at Cedar Cliff Lodge, near Mount Union.

Miss Floyd McKee, for five years an employe of the Newport postoffice, has resigned to take a place on the general force of the Pennsylvania Railroad here. She has been succeeded at the postoffice by Miss Martha Ritter.

Mrs. Mary M. Glaze, of Columbus, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Horing.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Thompson have returned to their home at Cleveland, Ohio, after visiting with the latter's father, Levi Smith, North Fourth street.

LIVERPOOL

Mrs. Bertha Harman and daughter, Blanche, of Williamsport, were recent visitors here with Mrs. Frances Leonard.

Mrs. Martha Hartzel, of Harrisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John N. Ritter.

Master Robert Richards is spending several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. Albert Sand, at Narbeth.

The Rev. G. H. H. Bunting and family were Tuesday visitors at New Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin DeHaven, of Harrisburg, are spending sometime here with their daughter, Mrs. William Derr.

Miss Carrie Hoffman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Raymond Leach at Akron, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter Murray, of Harrisburg, were recent visitors here with Newton Williamson.

NEWS OF WEST SHORE

Personal and Social Items of Towns on West Shore

Herbert Senseman, of Shiremanstown, is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gatland, at Coatesville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Braught, of Shiremanstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Darr at Steelton.

Miss Rhoda Beamer has returned to her home at Shiremanstown, after spending a week with relatives at Gettysburg.

Miss Ruth Hunsberger, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Miss H. Marie Senseman and Miss Elma Senseman, at Shiremanstown.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Eshleman, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Eshleman, son Kenneth, Mrs. E. K. Morret, daughter Pearl, Mrs. John A. Nester, son John Nester, Jr., of Shiremanstown, attended the funeral of Mrs. George Myers, at Enola Road.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rowles, of Shiremanstown; Moss Rowles, of Mechanicsburg, visited the latter's husband, Earl R. Rowles, at Camp Meade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brinton, of New Cumberland, took a trip to Norrisstown, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. A. W. Cobb, son Albert, of Camden, N. J., were guests of Mrs. Ella Evers and Mrs. Holler, at New Cumberland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Baker, of New Cumberland, spent Tuesday evening at Williamsport. Mrs. Baker, who has been guests of E. G. Burk, in Market street, New Cumberland, returned to their home at Springfield, Ohio, Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Smaling and Homer Miller, of New Cumberland, motored to Zion View, York county, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolf, of Florida, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wolf, at New Cumberland, this week.

Miss Kathryn Seip, Dubois, Pa., and Homer Miller will sing at Trinity United Brethren Church, New Cumberland, Sunday evening.

A large crowd is expected to attend the outing held by the members of the New Cumberland Woman's Benefit Association at Pax-tan Park on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reiff, Mrs. Jennie Kline, Mrs. Reed Gracey and Miss Jane Naylor, of New Cumberland, attended the wedding of Helen Kline Montgomery and Lieutenant C. G. Meen at Carlisle, to-day.

DeWitt Brinton, of New Cumberland, employed at the Gettysburg Steel Works, got a piece of steel in his eye while at work yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Eshleman, of Washington Heights, attended a reunion of the Eshleman family at Losh's Run on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Peffer, of Washington Heights, visited Miss Elizabeth Hutter, of Enola, on Sunday.

George Seiser, of Washington Heights, spent the weekend at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rishel, of Washington Heights, visited Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Rishel, of Harrisburg, on Sunday.

Mrs. William Boyer, of Washington Heights, spent the weekend at Carlisle.

Miss Clara Moran, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Jacobs, at Washington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wagner, of Washington Heights, announce the birth of a son on Wednesday, July 24.

RECENT REALTY SALES

The firm of Backenstoss Bros., real estate offices in the Russ building, announce the following recent sales:

No. 221 Emerald street, Philip H. Rudolph to George W. Hauck, of Hershey, Pa., consideration, $1.

Northeast corner Hamilton and Logan streets, Camp Hill, Elvin C. Frey, to Philip H. Rudolph; consideration, $1.

No. 222 Seneca street, Mrs. Anna Stine to Anna M. Chronister; consideration, $1.

No. 1940 North Seventh street, Steel Works, to Harry Kinnard; consideration, $1.

FREE TO PILE SUFFERERS

Don't Be Cut—Until You Try This New Home Cure That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time. Simply Apply a Pleasant Tasting Tablet Occasionally and Rid Yourself Permanently of Piles.

Let Me Prove This Free

My internal method for the treatment and permanent cure of piles is the correct one. Thousands upon thousands of cured cases testify to this, and want you to try this method at my expense.

No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development—whether it is chronic or acute—whether it is occasional or permanent—you should send for this free trial treatment.

No matter where you live—no matter what your age or occupation—if you are troubled with piles, my method will relieve you promptly.

I especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases where all other methods have failed and other local applications have failed.

I want you to realize that my method will relieve you promptly.

This liberal offer of free treatment is good only for a limited time. Write a single day. Write now. Send no money. Simply mail the coupon— but do this now—TO-DAY.

Free Pile Remedy

E. R. Page, 963 Page Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Please send me free trial of your method to:

Name..... Address..... City..... State.....

Wincroft Gas Ranges All Styles and Sizes. Up-to-the-Minute Features. Made at Middletown For Sale by Your Dealer and Your Gas Co. STOVE WORKS

Sixth Ward Unit of Emergency Aid to Be Presented With Piano

On Friday evening, August 1, J. Edward Jenkins will present a new piano to the Sixth ward unit of the Emergency Aid Society. The instrument, which is the gift of the J. H. Troup Music House, will become the property of the uptown organization to be kept in their newly-furnished quarters at 1422 North Fourth street.

Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, captain of the association, has appointed a committee to arrange a suitable musical program for the occasion.

Following is the committee: Harry Burrs, James H. Smith, A. A. Jones, John H. Wilson, Mrs. Lottie Potter, Mrs. Alice Dorsey, Mrs. Maud Brunner, Mrs. Daisy Shorts and Miss Nannie Burrs.

MAY ELIMINATE TWO CURB MARKET DAYS

Action to eliminate the Thursday and Saturday Keltner street markets and replace them with a market session Friday morning, will likely take place at Tuesday's Council meeting on the suggestion of Mayor Keltner at the advice of George S. Neibinger, City Sealer of Weights and Measures. It is said that the farmers would prefer two markets a week at Keltner street, and by making Friday market morning, the housewife would have market service each day of the week.

TO DIRECT SHIPPING

R. J. Dugan, transportation expert, has been assigned to Harrisburg by the Emergency Fleet Corporation, to see that there is no delay in transportation of materials for shipbuilding. Dugan is a prominent businessman with a wide knowledge of transportation problems and their solutions. Frank C. Joubert, who heads the transportation department of the Fleet Corporation, has assigned Dugan to duty here. Both Mr. Joubert and Assistant Manager W. W. Harwick, are expected in the city with him in a few days to confer on local problems.

Whenever you sense a sick headache, or feel a bilious attack coming on, ward it off by the timely use of BEECHAM'S PILLS.

Get New Kidneys! The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in GOLD MEDAL Becham's Pills. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an invaluable remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL brand. None other genuine. In boxes, three sizes.—Advertisement.

Shell's Schlimmer Store 28-30-32 N. Third Street Desirable Merchandise--- Two Day Sale FRIDAY and SATURDAY Special Lots Taken From Regular Stock Prices Revised For Quick Selling Women's Satin and Taffeta Coats Fifteen in the lot—black, taupe and navy—suitable for general wear—Values range up to $55.00. Two lots $11.90 and $19.75 Sleeveless Sport Jackets $3.95 $6.50 $14.90 Jersey and Corduroy velvet—various tones, were selling up to $25.00. Pantaloons Garden Smocks Women's Taffeta Skirts Women's Shetland Sweaters Well tailored in Khaki, sleeveless, serviceable and practical. Were $15.00. Special, $10.90 of excellent quality striped taffeta—small lot, were $19.95. Slip-on and Coat Style—some with Angora Collar and Cuffs, were $9.95. Special, $4.95 Quick Sale Finest Silk Underwear Crepe de chene and Satin Gowns Envelope Chemise Kayser Vests Former Prices were $2.95 to $10.00 An opportunity of a very rare nature, involving the choicest of silk underwear, oddments that are soiled from display $1.95 to $5.50 Two Day Sale, Friday and Saturday Embracing 300 Choice Blouses in voile, organdie and crepe de chene This Sale of blouses embraces a very fine assortment of white and colored models, with new collars and cuffs. Many novel and attractive features are portrayed. The models are very much out of the ordinary. The Sale prices mean extraordinary savings. You can well afford to stock up a bit at these prices. Values range up as high as $5.00 Lot 1 95c Lot 2 $1.95 Lot 3 $2.95

For Tomorrow's Breakfast ask for POSTAL COOKIES THE NEW IDEA IN CORN FLAKES HELPS SAVE THE WHEAT