Strikes Lumber Pile on Shore and Follows Wire to Building on Halderman Island

Duncannon, Pa., July 26 .- During an electric and rainstorm Tuesday evening, lightning struck a lumber pile owned by the Hicks Brothers stored on the west bank of the Susquehanna river at Benvenue, just east of here, then followed a wire cable stretched from a post near by to a building on the point of Halder man's Island, near the middle of the Susquehanna River, set it afire and burned it to the ground. The building was one of the old reminders oof fennsylvania canal boating days in this vicinity. The building was then used to store grain harvested from the four large farms on the island. At an opportune time the grain charges made against them as the would be shipped to market by canal

TOO MUCH SUGAR
Mifflinburg, Pa., July 26.—A man named Bingman, at Glen Iron, a few miles west of Mifflinburg, was caught buying sugar at two different stores in that locality in a brief space of time, with knowledge he was doing wrong and misrepresenting the fact to the merchants. This act was brought to the knowledge of the county food administrator, G. F.
Roush, of Mifflinburg, who, upon investigation of facts, fined him $5, the money going to the Red Cross. TOO MUCH SUGAR

SLATER'S STORY OF CAPTIVITY IN

Rich American Tells Court He Was Chained, Beaten and Ill Fed

FRENCH CHATEAU

Moulins, France, July 26.-James Samuel Slater, a wealthy retired manufacturer of Webster, Mass., took the witness stand yesterday in the trial of the three persons accused of having illegally detained him—Andre Biscaye, his wife, Anna Biscaye, and Raymond Barrau. The occusation is that during an automobile trip Slater was induced to so to a chateau, where he was held three months, with little food or heat, and compelled to sign checks for the total sum, it is asserted, of $260,000.

Charmed by Parisienne

Charmed by Parisienne
Biscaye was engaged in America by Mr. Slater as a chauffeur, and as such was taken to France. In Paris Mr. Slater became interested in a fascinating "midinetta" named Anna Aimes Roomale Nepveu, and took her with him on long tours.
On one of the journeys Mr. Slater was persuaded by his companions to lease the Chateau des Bouchots in the south of France, where he sopn found himself a prisoner, was even "chained by the neck like a dog," was constantly plied with intoxicants and com-elled to sign checks aggregating $280,000. The pair had hired Barrau, the third defendant, as a guard, alleging that Mr. Slater was insane and, when opportunity offered, went to Toulsnes and were married.

Liverpool Nurse Enlists With U. S. Red Cross

for the total sum, it is asserted, of $250,000.
Slater told the story of his detention, during which, he said, he was struck repeatedly and also chained. He did not get the neighbors' assistance, he said, because he was always under the eye of Barrau, who it hwarted any attempt to communicate with the outside world. He was treated with the utmost brutality, he added, and wounds were inflicted frequently by the beatings Barrau gave him. Often he left untouched the food prepared for him touched the food prepared for him to the touched for some time. Miss Tharp is the first from this borough or review a Red Cross Nurse commission. "I Was a Miserable Soul For the Past Two Years,"

Says Mrs. Heiner; "Had No Appetite and Was a Nervous Wreck."

"Tonall has done wonders for "Tonall has done wonders for me," says Mrs. James Heiner, of 267 North Sherman Street, York, Pa. "I was a miserable, nervous soul, had no appetite, could not sleep, had fainting spells and was daily growing worse. I was losing all hopes of again feeling good, as I had tried so many different remedies the past two years without receiving any good results.

"A friend of mine recommended Tonall to me and at last I thought I would give it a trial and now. I am certainly glad I did. I am feeling like a different person in every respect. I have a good appetite, sleep well, and have had only two fainting spells, since I began to take Tonall. I am gaining in weight and my nerves do not bother me. Tonall has done so much for me that my husband is also taking it."

This statement was given June 8, 1918.

Tonall is sold at Gorgas' Drug
