WORK OF INTRODUCTION COMMITTEE IS OUTLINED

Miss Clara Matthews, of Paoli, Talks on New C. E. Department; Notes of Interest

Introduction of Christian Endeavor into societies and among new friends in social circles is becoming a popular method of the Pennsylvania C. E. Union through the state introduction department superintendent, Miss Clara R. Matthews, of Paoli.

MISS CLARA R. MATTHEWS

At these days, when it is becoming more and more the custom for young people to leave their homes and take up work or study in a new place or the spirit of our country, there is an increasing need of such service as the introduction department can render.

Miss Matthews became a member of the First Presbyterian, E. B. Society twelve years ago. She served faithfully on the flower, social and prayermeeting committees, after which she was elected secretary of the society. Later she was elected president of the society, which office she served for four years until she was elected corresponding secretary of the Chester County C. E. Union.

C. E. Notes

Christian Endeavors in foreign lands always suffer for lack of funds to get out C. E. helps. This year a windfall has come to China in the form of $1,000 from the Missionary Board for free distribution of C. E. topic booklets in China.

Many friends will invoke the sympathy of the Rev. Daniel A. Pollock, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, Boston, in behalf of the death of his wife, who died Thursday, July 25, at Auburndale, Mass.

The motto, "Practice the Power of God," has been adopted by the association.

"White Hot" Patriotic Service to Be Held at Park Street United Evangelical

With special patriotic services tomorrow evening, members of the Park Street United Evangelical Church aim to keep their patriotism at white heat.

The announcement of the event as issued by the pastor, follows: "Our patriotism needs to be kept at 'white heat' these days, and also our zeal for the Gospel of Christ in its full comprehensiveness. Genuine loyalty counts for nothing unless it stands for righteousness, is all comprehended in Christianity."

That we may not lag in our patriotic fervor, a church gospel-charged patriotic service will be held in Park Street United Evangelical Church Sunday evening, August 4. The following is the provisional program:

- Song service, "America and Christ, For the World We Sing." Brief opening prayers, by mothers who have sons in the service. Response by the congregation, "Weapons of Spiritual Warfare." Solo, "The Star Spangled Banner." Solo, "The Marching Song," Mrs. L. Booda.

With Choir and Organist TO URGE "Y" RECRUITING

Dr. Becht to Talk at Market Square Tomorrow Morning on "Y" Work

The morning service at Market Square Presbyterian Church will be given over to the Y. M. C. A. drive for volunteers for service overseas.

George Sutton, baritone, called for service in the Army and now at Camp Lee, is busy learning the craft of war. Brief word from the popular singer received by friends here is that he is knee deep in the war game.

At the request of quite a number of worshippers, the choir of Westminster Presbyterian Church will sing tomorrow morning the impressive trio, "Praise Ye," adapted to music from Verdi's "Atila." The number will be Dudy Buck's "Oh, Lord, Rebuke Me Not," with soprano solo by Miss Wilson. Gower's beautiful morning hymn has been chosen as the opening congregational number.

George Flack, a Tech boy and talented player, is playing the organ at Fifth Street Methodist Church, in the absence of Miss Violet Cassel, who is enjoying her vacation.

Miss Louise Baer, whose excellent work at Fifth Street Methodist Church on Thursday evening in the concert given by the studio quartet, is the daughter of Cameron B. Baer, school director and general manager of the Cumberland Valley Telephone Company.

Charles M. Schwab is an organist of considerable ability and wide discrimination. He has an affinity with music which by some mystic process makes him more efficient in his affinity with sweet melody than a quality applied in any business or profession works wonders beyond the power of the man who is without it.

Prof. Frank A. McCarrell, who is absent on his vacation, Miss Martha Armstrong, soprano, will lead the singing the first two Sundays and Mrs. William Helsley the last two Sundays in the month.

Another city organist who is enjoying a well-earned vacation is Mrs. Emma Hoffman, whose work at Messiah Lutheran Church has proved most helpful for a number of years.
