WELL 1891—2856 UNITED

HARRISBURG, TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1918.

FOUNDED 1871

Farragut Had the Right Idea

When it was up to him to force the passage of the Mississippi or fall down on the job, did he hesitate because the muddy stream reeked with death-dealing torpedoes? No! "Damn the torpedoes—full steam ahead!" said Farragut.

There are thousands of Farraguts to-day. On the blood-washed poppy fields of Flanders and on the shell-torn meadows of Picardy. They are carrying America's message to Berlin.

Manwhile in Paris, Fashion sits upon her throne, while shuddering as bursting bombs drop from the skies. To her, America looks for style-inspiration, whether the world be at war or peace.

The new ideas from Paris, cleverly adapted by American designers, are arriving daily in our store. Simplicity is the keynote of Fall styles. Inspection is invited.
